Summary:

CCH will continue to serve as the lead agency of the Rehousing Collaborative providing term-limited rental assistance to people experiencing homelessness. Rehousing Collaborative partner agencies are The Salvation Army, Volunteers of America, The Gathering Place, Urban Peak Denver, and The Delores Project. This collaboration provides short-term bridge shelter, rapid rehousing rental assistance, and supportive services to qualifying participants. CCH coordinates the collaborative; All partners, including CCH, provide the services. CCH subcontracts with each agency for their services as part of this program.

A. Rental Services

1. This Rehousing Collaborative will administer term-limited rental assistance to households to provide the financial assistance needed to create long-term housing stability.
 - a. The maximum term for rental assistance to each household is two years.
 - b. HUD Fair Market Rents (FMR) will be used to establish base allowable rents.

B. Eligibility Screening

1. All participants receiving funding in this program must be currently experiencing homelessness.
2. Priority will be given to current residents of activated respite and protective action programs, to current residents of auxiliary and emergency shelters in Denver, and unsheltered/unhoused people experiencing homelessness contacted through street outreach.
3. Participants will be enrolled in the OneHome system as appropriate to provide access to permanent housing resources.
4. To align with the goal of ensuring housing stability after the rental assistance term has ended, additional prioritization criteria have been established.

C. Supportive Services

1. Case managers will work with program participants on individualized plans to obtain and maintain safe and stable housing by the end of the rental assistance term.
2. Peer navigators will provide social supports to participants and help participants navigate available resources to foster housing stability.
