Christian Anderson, Bio,

A native of Madison Connecticut, Christian came to Denver to pursue a degree in International Business from the University of Denver. Christian began his career as a beverage consultant, and has spent the last six years representing one of Colorado's most innovative beverage distributor companies. While developing his knowledge of beer wine and spirits, he cultivated a passion for Denver's ever evolving food scene and began building his vision of a much more approachable style of dining. He then joined forces with Clint Wangsnes and Chop Shop was born.
