24 penalties based on race, ethnicity, nationality, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability,

5 defense to the charge that the parent safely, reasonably, and knowingly handed the child over to a
6 firefighter, as defined under section 18-3-201(1.5), C.R.S., or to a staff member who engages in the 7 admission, care, or treatment of patients at a hospital or community clinic emergency center, as 8 defined in subsection (d)(2) of this section.

31 to aid the other person or persons in the planning or commission of a crime under a provision of this 32 Code.

34 pursuance of that conspiracy is proved to have been done by such person or by a person with whom

1 such person conspired.

2 (c) If a person knows that one with whom the original person conspires to commit a crime
3 has conspired with another person or persons to commit the same crime, such person is guilty of 4 conspiring to commit a crime with the other person or persons, whether or not the person knows their

10 Section 6. That section 38-31 of the Denver Revised Municipal Code is hereby amended by 11 removing the struck through language and adding the language underlined, to read as follows:

12 Sec. 38-31. – Interference with police authorityObstructing a peace officer.

13 ~~(a) It shall be unlawful for any person, in any way, to interfere with or hinder any police~~
14 ~~officer, any member of the police department, or any person duly empowered with police authority,~~

23 under color of the peace officer's official authority.

24 ~~(eb) It shall be unlawful for any person to fail to obey a lawful order of a police officer if such~~
25 ~~failure interferes with or hinders such police officer in the discharge of his~~the peace officer's
26 ~~duties. It is an affirmative defense to this subsection that the failure to obey did not interfere with or~~
27 ~~hinder the police officers.~~

28 (c) A person shall not be charged with the offense described in this section because the 29 person remained silent or because the person stated a verbal opposition to an order by a government 30 official.

31 (d) It is not a defense to a prosecution under this section that the peace officer was acting in 32 an illegal manner, if the officer was acting under color of the officer's official authority. A peace officer
33 acts "under color of the officer's official authority" if, in the regular course of assigned duties, the peace
34 officer makes a judgment in good faith based on surrounding facts and circumstances that the officer

1 must act to enforce the law or preserve the peace.

2 (e) If a person is alleged to have committed the offense described in subsection (a) of this
3 section by using or threatening to use an unmanned aircraft system as an obstacle, the offense does
4 not apply if the person who operates the unmanned aircraft system:

6 agency or other entity that is coordinating the response of peace officers, firefighters, emergency
7 medical service providers, rescue specialists, or volunteers to an emergency or accident;

30 another; or

31 (2) Using any other means which creates a substantial risk of causing bodily injury to the 32 peace officer or another.

33 (b) It is no defense to prosecution under this section that the peace officer was attempting to 34 make an arrest which in fact was unlawful, if the officer was acting under color of the officer's official

1 authority, and in attempting to make the arrest the officer was not resorting to unreasonable or
2 excessive force giving rise to the right of self-defense. A peace officer acts “under color of the officer’s
3 official authority” when, in the regular course of assigned duties, the peace officer is called upon to 4 make, and does make, a judgment in good faith based upon surrounding facts and circumstances that
5 an arrest should be made by the officer.

6 make, and does make, a judgment in good faith based upon surrounding facts and circumstances
7 that an arrest should be made by the officer.

8 (c) “Peace officer” has the same meaning as described in section 16-2.5-101, C.R.S., and 9 section 16-2.5-103, C.R.S., and means a peace officer in uniform or, if out of uniform, one who has 10 identified themselves by exhibiting their credentials as a peace officer to the person whose arrest is 11 attempted.

12 (d) Violation of this section is a class 3 offense.
