

Salaries of District Attorney's in the metro area, Colorado Springs and Boulder –

1st Judicial District (Jefferson County, Pop. 565,783) - $208,000 - planning to ask for 1.5 or 2% increase for each year of his term beginning 2017, up to $220,000 at the end of his term.

4th Judicial District (Colorado Springs, Pop. 456,568) - $183,000 - will seek an increase for 2017

8th Judicial district (Larimer County, Pop. 315,988) - $196,911 - is seeking a 10% increase for four year period

17th Judicial District (Adams County, Pop. 490,698) - $203,859 - is seeking an increase for 2017

20th Judicial District (Boulder, Pop. 317,048) - $190,565 – seeking a 2% increase each year of the 4-year term; $205,810 in 2020.

Denver District Attorney, 2nd Judicial District, Request: (Denver County, Pop. 679,462) – currently set at $219,606 – seeking a 2% increase for the last two years of the term only, years 2019 and 2020.

Salaries of District Attorney's in other cities –

Sacramento, CA, (Sacramento County, Pop. 479,686) – Current salary $223,310, and will receive the same annual pay increases as county employees.