

Jurisdiction	Gifts Policy
Alaska Legislature	$250 maximum from same person/entity within calendar year.
Oakland, CA	$50 maximum annually from single source
San Diego, CA	$420 maximum annually from single source.
Los Angeles, CA	$440 maximum annually from single source.
San Francisco, CA	$460 maximum annually from single source.
Colorado	$53 per gift.
Connecticut	No gifts from restricted sources, but exception for food and beverages up to $50 aggregate per year.
Jacksonville, FL	$100 per gift.
Palm Beach County, FL	$100 in aggregate per calendar year from same source.
Atlanta, GA	Reasonable meals at public events allowed, but total ban on gifts of tickets for entertainment events.
Honolulu, HI	$200 in aggregate from one source per year.
Chicago	$50 total from one source per year
Cook County, Il	$100 from one source per year
Kansas	$40 limit.
Louisiana	$58 per event.
Massachusetts	$50 per gift.
Nebraska	Maximum of $50 per month from lobbyists.
New Jersey	Zero tolerance.
Buffalo, NY	$100 per gift.
New York City	No gifts allowed from lobbyists.
North Carolina	Ban on gifts
Oklahoma	$500 per calendar year from lobbyists; no gifts from vendors during contracting time.
Oregon	$50 per calendar from one source per year, except for unlimited food and beverages.
Philadelphia	$99 in aggregate per calendar year from same source.
Rhode Island	$75 in aggregate per calendar year from same source.
San Antonio, TX	$500 in calendar year from single source.
Washington, D.C.	None from restricted sources.
Source – 2015 Annual Ethics Update – Council on Governmental Ethics Laws (COGEL)	