5. General description or background of proposed request. Attach executive summary if more space needed:

The Versaterm Records Management System (vRMS) is the primary application suite used by the Denver Police Department (DPD) for storing and transmitting incident, arrest, and investigative data. In addition, the application provides interfaces to external systems such as the National Crime Information Center (NCIC), Colorado Information Sharing Consortium (CISC), online reporting, Denver Sheriff's Department, City Attorney's Office, District Attorney's Office, and Denver County Courts. The application supports the data collection, incident response, investigation, and reporting aspects of DPD employee workflows. The level of electronic integration achieved by vRMS with external agencies allows DPD to accurately and efficiently deliver records to agency partners. The product suite continues to evolve to more effectively address emerging use cases and new system integrations. Nearly all civilian and sworn employees of DPD use the vRMS application suite. There are, approximately, 2500 users of the vRMS application. This renewal includes the addition of 14 mobile licenses including annual maintenance and support for the Denver Sheriff's Department.

Term exceeding more than 3 - 5 years per Executive Order 8.

Per Executive Order 8: "Agencies should limit the duration of contracts to three to five years at which time a new solicitation should be initiated absent special circumstances." For most software applications, they cannot be simply unplugged and replaced with a new application; therefore, there will be several special circumstances that would provide for a justification to deviate from this policy.

The vRMS application is a highly specialized application suite that has been tailored to integrate with the unique systems in use in the City and County of Denver and partnering agencies. The Integrated Criminal Justice (ICJ) group consisting of DPD, Technology Services, the City Attorney's Office, District Attorney's Office, and Denver County Courts have spent abundant time and resources to develop a highly integrated and efficient data sharing system that allows for efficient delivery of necessary records and facilitates the process flow of the criminal justice process. The vRMS application has been customized to play a critical role in the ICJ system and initiates the data collection and transmission process. Additionally, it has been customized to integrate with many other systems. If the City were to budget for a replacement records management system, the replacement costs would need to include all the existing integrations. Additionally, other external agencies have collaborated with the City and spent their own resources to integrate with the existing system.

Analysis of Market

Although competitive products are constantly vetted by DPD, occasionally, the Department of Public Safety will invite vendors to participate in onsite demos as recently as 2023. Although there were products that provided a similar base feature set to our current solution, the underlying theme identified was that they would struggle to achieve our level of integration or have not attempted these types of integrations in the past. Additionally, the vRMS suite by Versaterm, Public Safety Inc. has provided a broad swath of features that is difficult for competitors to match. Most competitors are missing key feature sets. The cost of replacing the vRMS application and all of the related integrations would be significant and difficult to justify without a compelling reason.
