

ANNE WARHOVER

645 Monroe Street

Denver, Colorado 80206

303-250-1607

During her 38 year working career in Denver, Colorado, Anne Warhover has gained skills in leadership, finance, marketing, strategic planning, management, real estate development, board governance, health policy, health finance and health care. She has held positions of increasing responsibility culminating in her role as President and CEO of the Colorado Health Foundation, the largest foundation in Colorado. During her 11 year tenure as CEO, Anne led the Foundation through a growth of assets from $700,000 to $2.3 billion. She conducted the first long term strategic plan directing the foundation's $100 million in annual grantmaking and public policy advocacy toward healthy living, integrating mental and physical healthcare, and increasing the number of insured Coloradans.

Anne also was responsible for serving as the Foundation's fiduciary in its 40% ownership of the HealthONE hospital system. In this capacity, Anne participated in HealthONE's annual strategic and budget planning, approval of capital expenditures, and a variety of issues related to the management of the largest healthy system in the metro area. In addition, Anne attended all Board, Finance, Ethics, and Quality committee meetings, ensuring that the community was being served and that the hospital system was being managed in a financially sound manner while emphasizing quality and safety at all times. Anne gained vast experience in complex business and board management through this non-profit /for profit partnership.

In 2011, Anne led the Foundation's divestiture of its ownership stake in HealthONE, generating $1.45 billion for the community. The support of the board, the community, the Attorney General, and community advocates was garnered in order to successfully close this transaction.

Prior to joining the Colorado Health Foundation, Anne served as President and CEO of the Downtown Denver Partnership, a business membership and civic organization. In this capacity, Anne collaborated with City of Denver elected officials and cabinet members to ensure common goals were achieved. She represented the Downtown business community and property owners in leading Downtown's growth in housing and employment.

Anne began her career as a banker, spending 12 years in a variety of management positions in commercial banking at First National Bank of Denver (now Wells Fargo.)

Anne has served on many national, community and non profit boards. She currently serves on the Board of Community Wealth Partners and the US Bank Advisory Board.
