5. General description or background of proposed request. Attach executive summary if more space needed:

The Volunteers of America (VOA) Family Motel is an emergency shelter for families and individuals. This program provides not only much needed shelter, but also crucial support to assist households with obtaining permanent or stable housing. Thanks to GO Bond funding, the VOA family motel will be rebuilt, and the program has moved to an interim location while the new facility is constructed. This funding will be used to support operations at the interim location for the VOA Family Motel.
