

RiNo BID

(River North Business Improvement District)

10 YEAR RENEWAL

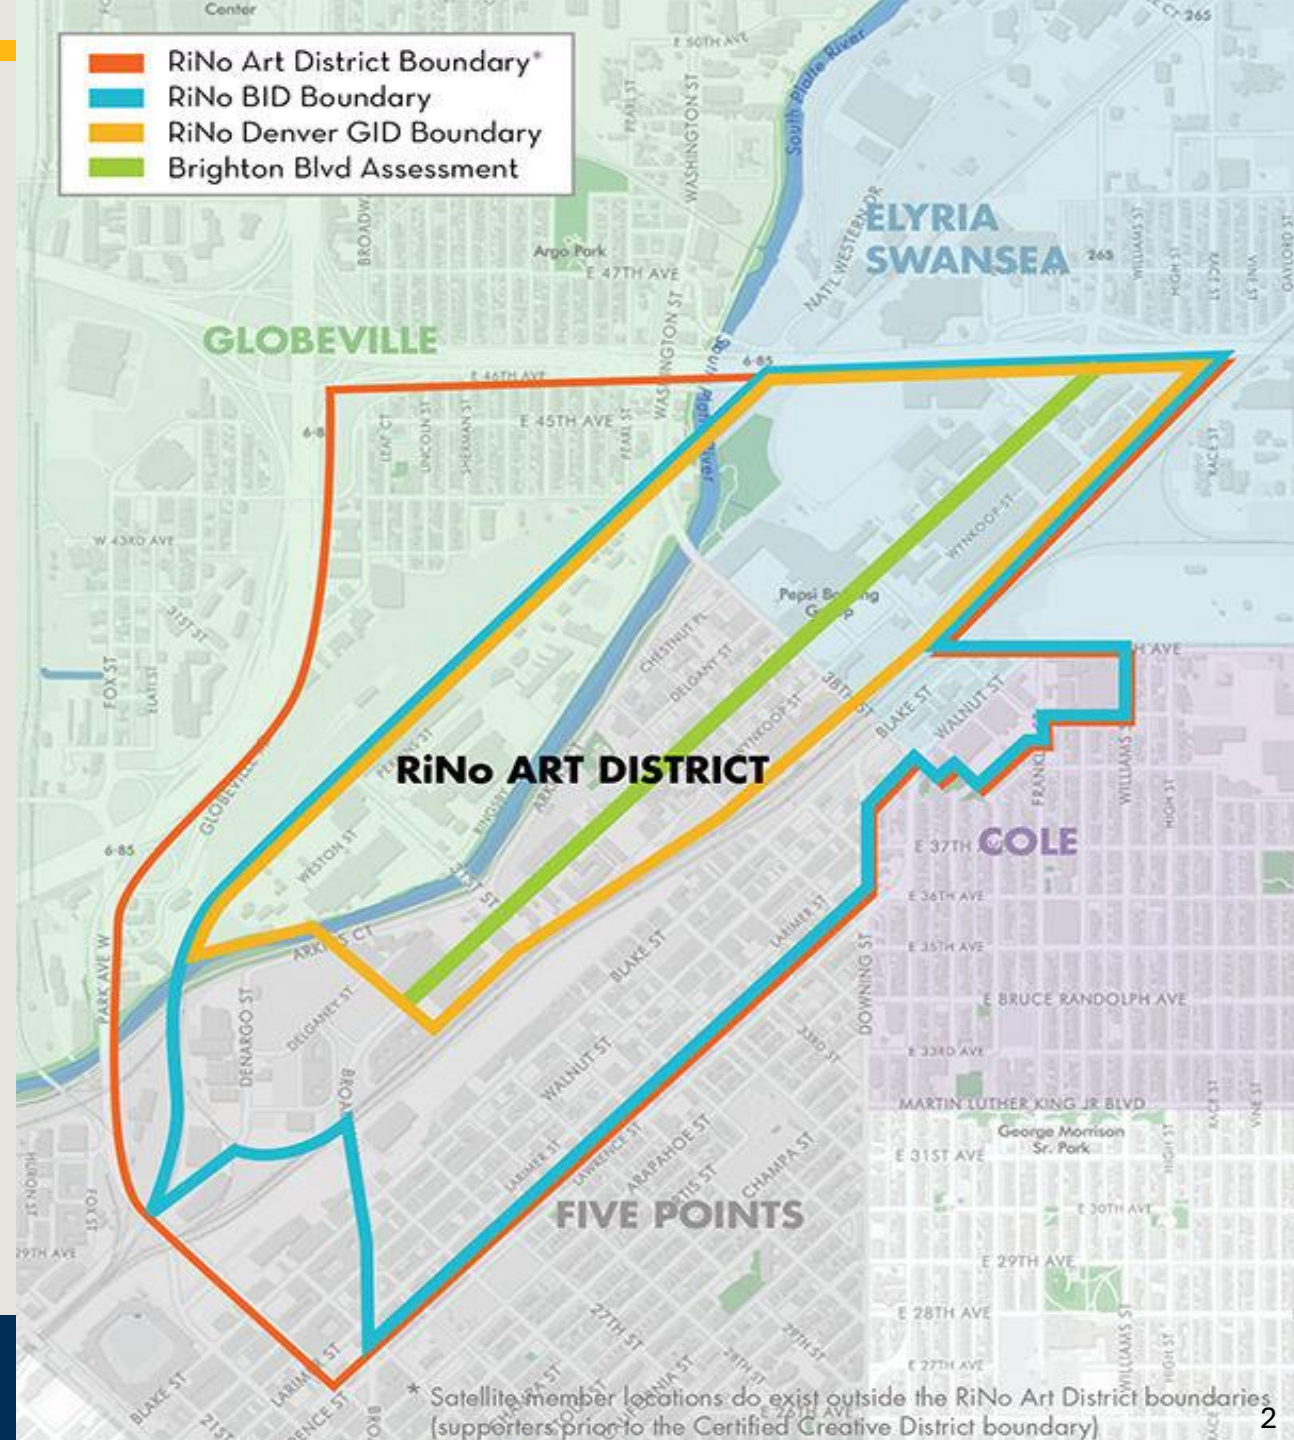

DENVER
DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE

BACKGROUND

The RiNo Business Improvement District (BID) was created in June 2015 as a special tax district to assess 4 mills to commercial property to generate funding in key areas.

1. Advocacy
2. Branding, Marketing and Activation
3. Placemaking
4. Business Support for Creatives and Entrepreneurs

10 YEAR RENEWAL

Ordinance No. 15-304, which created the RiNo BID, outlines the 10-year renewal process:

“Section 16. Ten-Year Renewal. The Board will provide notice and conduct a public hearing during the ninth year of the District’s existence to obtain property owner comments on the District’s effectiveness and success. If the District is deemed successful, the Board will request that the City Council renew the District by giving public notice, holding a hearing, and adopting an ordinance prior to the end of the ten-year initial term. If the District is not considered to be successful, it will sunset at the end of the Initial term and terminate after it has wound up its affairs. This process will repeat every ten (10) years.”

BID RENEWAL SURVEY RESPONSES

- Great Initial Success: By nearly all accounts, and from all stakeholder groups, the initial five or so years of the BID are universally viewed as immensely successful.
- Streamline Complex Governance: All involved in the process agree that the structure (RAD, BID, GID, KRW) is overly complicated and needs improvement.
- Continue the Bid with Improvements: The BID should continue with key adjustments, including more focus, discipline, and transparency.

NEW BID OPERATING MODEL

Streamline Roles and Responsibilities

- Reduce organizational overlap and confusion.
- Streamline reporting structures and governance oversight.
- Establish single-line board governance.
- Delineate direct lines of authority and reporting structure.

Drive Efficiency & Increase Transparency

- Minimize low-value administrative activities.
- Create more staff capacity for priority organizational projects.
- Develop clear reports and budgets on BID projects.
- Track and measure each organization's success in achieving its mission.
