For a term affectively immediately we wish to increase the amount of youth commissioners on the Mayor's Youth Commission from the present number of 11 to the proposed number of 20. The proposed increased number of youth commissioners would allow the Mayor's Youth Commission to better reflect the diverse population of youth in Denver. For a term affectively immediately we wish to decrease the adult city and non-city commissioners from the current 5 to 4. This decrease in number of adults would allow for the increase in the number of youth commissioners, while at the same time maintaining the appropriate number of adult commissioners.
