As a dedicated project coordinator and community advocate, I have lived in the district for 13 years and am deeply invested in its future. My vision is for Broadway to be a vibrant, thriving community that welcomes residents, supports businesses, and attracts visitors. I bring valuable experience from my work with Denver Public Schools and my active role on the board of the Lincoln Broadway Corridor Registered Neighborhood Organization. There, I organized community events, including annual neighborhood cleanups and craft nights, that fostered connection and pride among neighbors. For the past three years, I have helped organize the Broadway Halloween Parade, watching it grow from about 1,000 spectators to an incredible 30,000, uniting our community through celebration. As a parent, volunteer, and committed community advocate, I am driven to ensure our district thrives and that every voice is heard.
