- The proposed G-MU-5, General Urban, Multi-Unit, 5 (maximum of five stories) zone district is intended for use in the General Urban Neighborhood Context which is primarily characterized by multi-unit residential uses in a variety of building forms. Multi-unit residential structures are typically in the Apartment building form. The maximum height of the Apartment building form is 65 feet across the zone lot. The Detached Accessory Dwelling Unit form can be a maximum height of 24 feet. Further details of the requested zone district can be found in the proposed zone district section of the staff report (below) and in Article 6 of the Denver Zoning Code (DZC).

City Location

Neighborhood Location – West Colfax

1. Existing Context

The subject properties are located in the middle of the west half of the West Colfax statistical neighborhood, which is characterized by a wide mix of single-unit, two-unit, and multi-unit dwellings, along with commercial/retail, industrial, public/quasi-public, mixed-use, and parks/open space uses throughout the neighborhood. There are two properties. The first of these (1409-1471 North Julian Street) is located along the west side of North Julian Street north of the northwest corner of the intersection of West 14th Avenue and North Julian Street. The second of these (3315-3317 West 14th Avenue) is located on the north side of West 14th Avenue, west of the northwest corner of West 14th Avenue and North Irving Street.

RTD Bus Route 1 runs east-west along W 14th Avenue (from zero to a half block south). Route 16 runs east-west along W Colfax Avenue and West 14th Avenue (from a half to one block north or east). The properties are on the same half-blocks as bus stops for Route 1 along W 14th Avenue, and approximately 300 to 700 feet away from bus stops for Route 16 on West Colfax Avenue and West 14th Avenue. In addition, the site is less than ¼ mile from the Knox Station Platform of the W Line (RTD light rail), and less than a half mile from the Decatur and Federal Station Platform, and stops for bus lines PLFX, 31, 16, 15L, and 30.

The following table summarizes the existing context proximate to the subject site:

	Existing Zoning	Existing Land Use	Existing Building Form/Scale	Existing Block, Lot, Street Pattern
Site	G-RH-3	Multi-Unit Residential and Two-	2-story brick and shingle-clad rowhomes with pedestrian access of North Julian Street and a 1-story brick duplex with pedestrian access on West 14 th Avenue.	Generally regular grid of streets. Block sizes and shapes are consistent

2. Existing Zoning

The existing zoning on the subject property is G-RH-3 (General Urban Row House 3). G-RH-3 allows Urban House, Duplex, Garden Court, Town House, and Apartment primary building forms. The maximum allowed height is 3 stories, with feet allowed varying by building form, ranging from a maximum of 30-35 feet in the front 80% of the zone lot (urban house) to 65 feet across the zone lot (Town House and Apartment). G-RH-3 also allows three accessory structure forms: Detached Accessory Dwelling Unit, Detached Garage, and other Detached Accessory Structures.

Proposed Zoning

G-MU-5 is a multi-unit district allowing urban house, duplex, row house, garden court, town house, and apartment building forms. The tallest building form has a maximum height of five stories, with exceptions and incentives for additional height. A variety of residential, civic, public, and institutional uses are permitted as primary uses in the G-MU-5 district.

The primary building forms allowed in the existing zone district and the proposed zone district are summarized below.

*7 stories or 90 feet is allowed in the apartment building form for the provision of enhanced affordable housing, however the site's proximity to a protected district (G-RH-3) would limit height to 75 feet, and require upper-story setbacks along the side and rear.

Summary of City Agency Referral Comments

As part of the DZC review process, the rezoning application is referred to potentially affected city agencies and departments for comment. A summary of agency referral responses follows:

Assessor: Approved – No Response.

Asset Management: Approved – No Comments.

Denver Public Schools: Approved – No Response.

Development Services - Fire: Approved – No Response.

Development Services – Project Coordination: Approved – See Comments Below.

SDP review will be required for all projects containing more than 3 units.

SDP will review against all building form standards and for Protected District requirements. The surrounding Zone District -G-RH-3 - is a Protected District.

Development Services - Transportation: Approved – No Response.

Development Services – Wastewater: Approved – See Comments Below.

There is no objection to the rezone, however applicant should be under notice that DOTI will not approve any development of this property without assurance that there is sufficient sanitary and storm sewer capacity. The 8-inch sanitary main in West Colfax may have capacity issues depending on development proposed. Detention and water quality may be required. There is not directly adjacent storm, but there is a public storm line at the north end of the alley and in Colfax. The alley may require widening to meet separation from public sanitary main. A sanitary study and drainage study will be required. These studies may result in a requirement for the developer to install major infrastructure improvements or a limit to development if current infrastructure is insufficient. Approval of this rezone on behalf of Wastewater does not state, or imply, public storm/sanitary infrastructure can, or cannot, support the proposed zoning.

Parks and Recreation: Approved – No Comments.

Department of Transportation & Infrastructure – City Surveyor: Approved – No Comments.

Public Health and Environment: Approve Rezoning Only - Will require additional information at Site Plan Review.

The Denver Department of Public Health and Environment, Environmental Quality Division (EQD) performed a limited search for environmental information regarding environmental conditions at the project site. This review was not intended to conform to the ASTM standard practice for environmental site assessments, nor was it designed to identify all potential environmental conditions. The EQD provides no representations or warranties regarding the accuracy, reliability, or completeness of the information provided.

This review was not intended to assess environmental conditions for any property interest dedication or grant. Nor does this review constitute an approval or action by the EQD concerning any property dedication or grant associated with the project.

--EQD is not aware of environmental concerns that would affect the proposed project. Although EQD is not aware of contaminated environmental media (soil, soil vapor, or groundwater) at the project Site, undocumented contamination could be encountered during ground-disturbing activities. If encountered, contaminated environmental media or underground storage tanks should be properly managed in accordance with applicable regulations.

EQD does not guarantee approval of any proposed development project at this site by providing a response to this Official Map Amendment Referral Agency Review Request. Future development is subject to existing land use controls and other environmental requirements in accordance with applicable local, state, and federal environmental regulations and statutes. EQD recommends the Property Owner conduct an environmental site assessment to determine the potential presence, nature, and extent of possible contamination on the site and to identify specific cleanup needs associated with future development. EQD may have additional information about localized potential environmental concerns at the site. However, providing such information about a specific site is beyond the scope of these zoning application comments.

Public Outreach and Input

- Since Application was Submitted:

- Registered Neighborhood Organizations (RNOs)

As of the date of this report, staff has not received any written comment from a RNO pertaining to this application.

- Other Public Comment

As of the date of this report, eight public comments have been received from members of the public.

Four (4) of these are letters of support. Of these, two are from residents (at the same address) on the 1400 block of N. Julian St., who anticipate raised property values, emphasize alignment with the West Area Plan, and support improvement of living conditions for current tenants. Another is from the Founder and Executive Director of Confluence Ministries, which is a faith-based non-profit and community center in the West Colfax neighborhood. This letter emphasizes Wazee Partners' sponsorship of neighborhood events and demonstrated community engagement for this project. It further expresses confidence in Wazee Partners' plan to provide housing to the current residents in a related project. A fourth letter of support was received since the staff report was completed from Sloans Lake Citizens Group, an RNO whose boundaries extend across the subject properties. In a straw vote, a majority of RNO members support the project. Furthermore, this letter emphasizes the need for more housing in surrounding neighborhoods, and states a preference for the current affordable units on the subject properties to be replaced at the 1409-1471 Julian St. property.

Four letters of opposition, moderate opposition, or strong opposition have also been received. Of these, three are from neighbors on the 1400 block of W Knox Ct. Generally, these neighbors are concerned with building scale, parking, traffic, trash collection, environmental impacts, concentration of affordable housing, and declining property values if the property is rezoned to G-MU-5. They also mention support for the existing zoning or and three-story apartments. Another is from a neighbor on the 1300 block of Knox Court, who questions the need for more housing in the City and more rental housing in the neighborhood, given current socioeconomic conditions.

Criteria for Review / Staff Evaluation

The criteria for review of this rezoning application are found in DZC, Sections 12.4.10.7 and 12.4.10.8, as follows:

DZC Section 12.4.10.7

1. Consistency with Adopted Plans
2. Uniformity of District Regulations and Restrictions
3. Public Health, Safety and General Welfare

DZC Section 12.4.10.8

1. Justifying Circumstances
2. Consistency with Neighborhood Context Description, Zone District Purpose and Intent Statements

1. Consistency with Adopted Plans

The following adopted plans apply to this application:

- Denver Comprehensive Plan 2040 (2019)
- Blueprint Denver (2019)
- West Area Plan (2023)

Denver Comprehensive Plan 2040

The proposed rezoning is consistent with many of the adopted Denver Comprehensive Plan 2040 strategies, including:

- Equitable, Affordable and Inclusive Goal 1 Strategy A – “Increase development of housing units close to transit and mixed use developments” (p. 28)
- Equitable, Affordable and Inclusive Goal 2, Strategy A – “Create a greater mix of housing options in every neighborhood for all individuals and families” (p. 28).

G-MU-5 allows for a variety of housing types at various densities, including the apartment building form, close to several bus and light rail lines, as well as a main street corridor of increasingly mixed use development. Apartment or garden court units, town houses, duplexes, urban houses, and accessory dwelling units can provide housing for individuals or families with different incomes, ages, and needs compatible with the various types of homes that characterize much of the West Colfax neighborhood.

- Strong and Authentic Neighborhoods Goal 1, Strategy B – “Ensure neighborhoods offer a mix of housing types and services for a diverse population” (p. 34).

The proposed rezoning would allow infill development appropriate for the surrounding neighborhood that broadens the range of housing types available.

- Environmentally Resilient Goal 8, Strategy A – “Promote infill development where infrastructure and services are already in place” (p. 54).

The proposed map amendment will allow additional housing units on the site of existing rowhomes and a duplex on a block where infrastructure and services such as water, stormwater, and streets already exist. This allows Denver to grow responsibly and promotes land conservation.

Blueprint Denver

Blueprint Denver was adopted in 2019 as a supplement to Comprehensive Plan 2040 and establishes an integrated framework for the city's land use and transportation decisions. Blueprint Denver identifies the subject property as part of a Residential High-Medium future place within the General Urban future neighborhood context and provides guidance on the future growth strategy for the city.

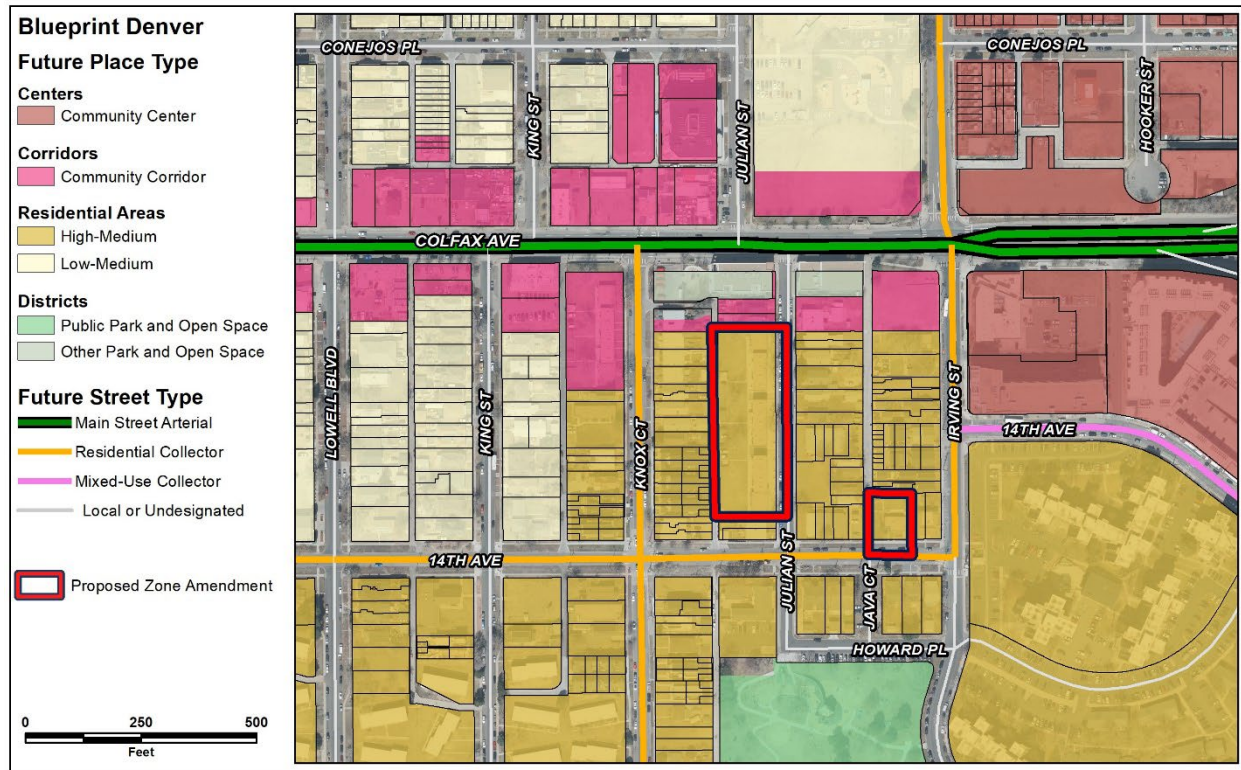

Blueprint Denver Future Neighborhood Context

In Blueprint Denver, future neighborhood contexts are used to help understand differences between land use, built form, and mobility at a high scale, between neighborhoods. The subject site is shown on the context map as the General Urban neighborhood context, the description of which is used to guide appropriate zone districts (p. 66). The General Urban neighborhood context is described as offering "great walkability and access to neighboring areas and commercial nodes," as well as "a mix of uses, with good street activation and connectivity." Furthermore, "residents living in this context are well served by transit and enjoy access to abundant amenities and entertainment options." This context exhibits walkability due to a "predictable street grid in residential areas and the availability of dedicated transit options and bike lanes." Lastly, "Homes in this context vary from multi-unit complexes to compact single-unit homes" (p. 237).

G-MU-5 is a zone district within the General Urban neighborhood context and is “intended to promote and protect higher density residential neighborhoods within the character of the General Urban Neighborhood Context” and “the building form standards, design standards and uses work together to promote safe, active, pedestrian-scaled residential areas” (DZC Section 6.2.2.1). The proposed G-MU-5 zone district is consistent with the Blueprint Denver future neighborhood context of General Urban because it will promote the residential character by allowing multi-unit residential uses that will be compatible with the existing residential area.

Blueprint Denver Future Place

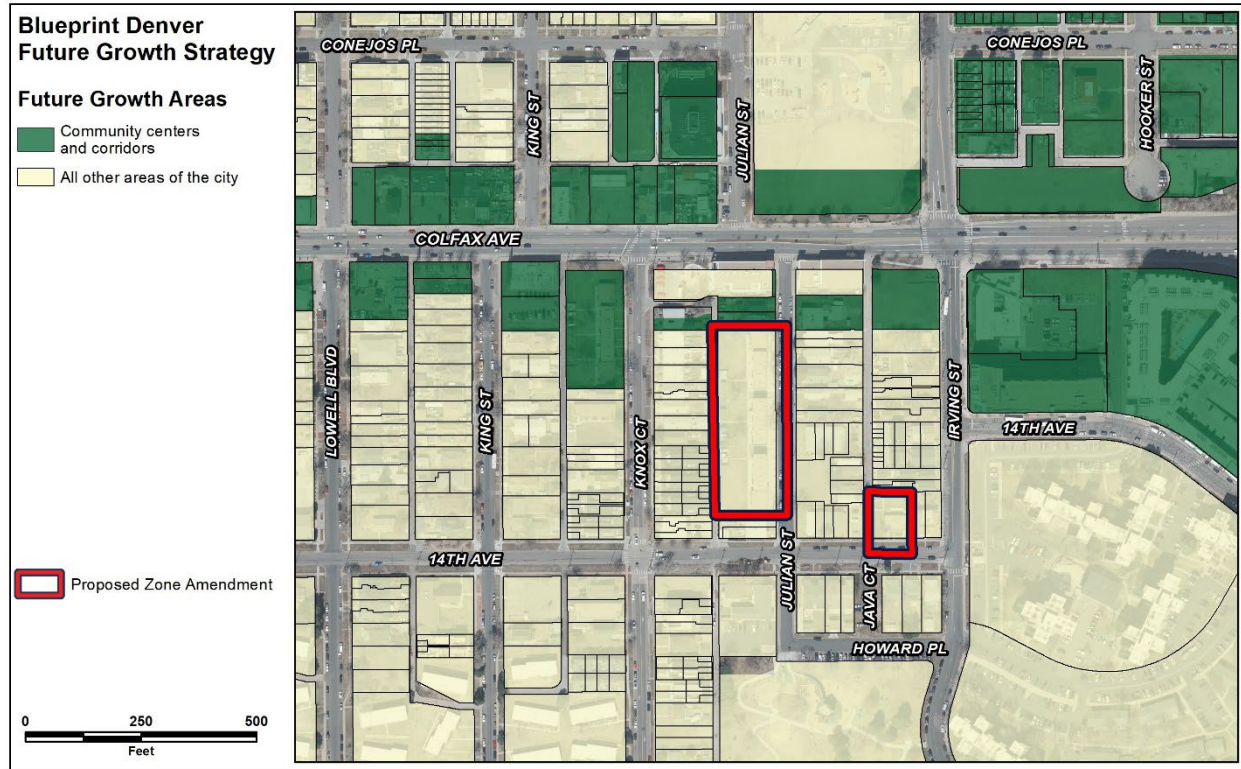

The subject site is designated within a High-Medium Residential future place on the Blueprint Denver Future Places map. This place is “a mix of low- to medium-scale multi-unit residential uses,” and “buildings are generally up to 8 stories in height” (p. 246). G-MU-5 is a multi-unit residential district that allows for an additional dwelling unit, consistent with the High-Medium Residential future place description. It allows the urban house, duplex, row house, garden court, town house, and apartment building forms, the tallest of which has a maximum height of five stories (DZC Section 6.2.2.1), also consistent with the future places map.

Blueprint Denver Street Types

In Blueprint Denver, street types work together with the future place to evaluate the appropriateness of the intensity of the adjacent development (p. 67). Blueprint Denver classifies North Julian Street as Local or Undesignated, which is “most often characterized by residential uses.” Furthermore, West 14th Avenue is classified as the Residential Collector Future Street Type, which are described as serving “primarily residential uses, but may also include schools, civic uses, parks, small retail nodes and other similar uses” (p. 160-161). The proposed G-MU-5 district is consistent with this description because it allows primarily for residential uses.

Blueprint Denver Growth Strategy

Blueprint Denver's growth strategy map is a version of the future places map, showing the aspiration for distributing future growth in Denver (p. 51). The subject property is part of the “All other areas of the city” growth area. These areas anticipate experiencing around 20% of new housing growth and 10% of new employment growth by 2040” (p. 51). This growth area is “mostly residential areas with embedded local centers and corridors, take a smaller amount of growth intended to strengthen the existing character of our neighborhoods” (p. 49). The proposed map amendment to G-MU-5 will allow incremental growth to the number of households in this area relative to the existing built context and density. Therefore, rezoning to G-MU-5 is consistent with the growth strategy.

Blueprint Denver Strategies

Blueprint Denver provides additional recommendations related to rezoning to G-MU-5.

- Land Use & Built Form Policy 2 Strategy C – “Allow increased density in exchange for desired outcomes, such as affordable housing, especially in transit-rich areas” (p. 72).

In this case, the requested rezoning is for lots in a residential area within a short walking distance of multiple bus and light rail routes. Furthermore, this property will be required to meet Mandatory Affordable Housing requirements. This rezoning to a multi-unit zone district will be supported by this rich transit infrastructure, have minimal impacts on the surrounding neighborhood and is consistent with Blueprint Denver and small area plan recommendations.

West Area Plan

The West Area Plan was adopted in March 2023 as part of Community Planning and Development's Neighborhood Planning Initiative. In the West Area Plan, the subject property is within the General Urban Neighborhood Context and in the Future Places Map is classified as High-Medium Residential. The Base Maximum Building Height of the site is defined as "Up to 5 stories" (p. 175), while the Incentive Maximum Building Height is "Up to 7 stories." (p. 177)

The plan also includes several relevant economy and housing recommendations (p. 207), including:

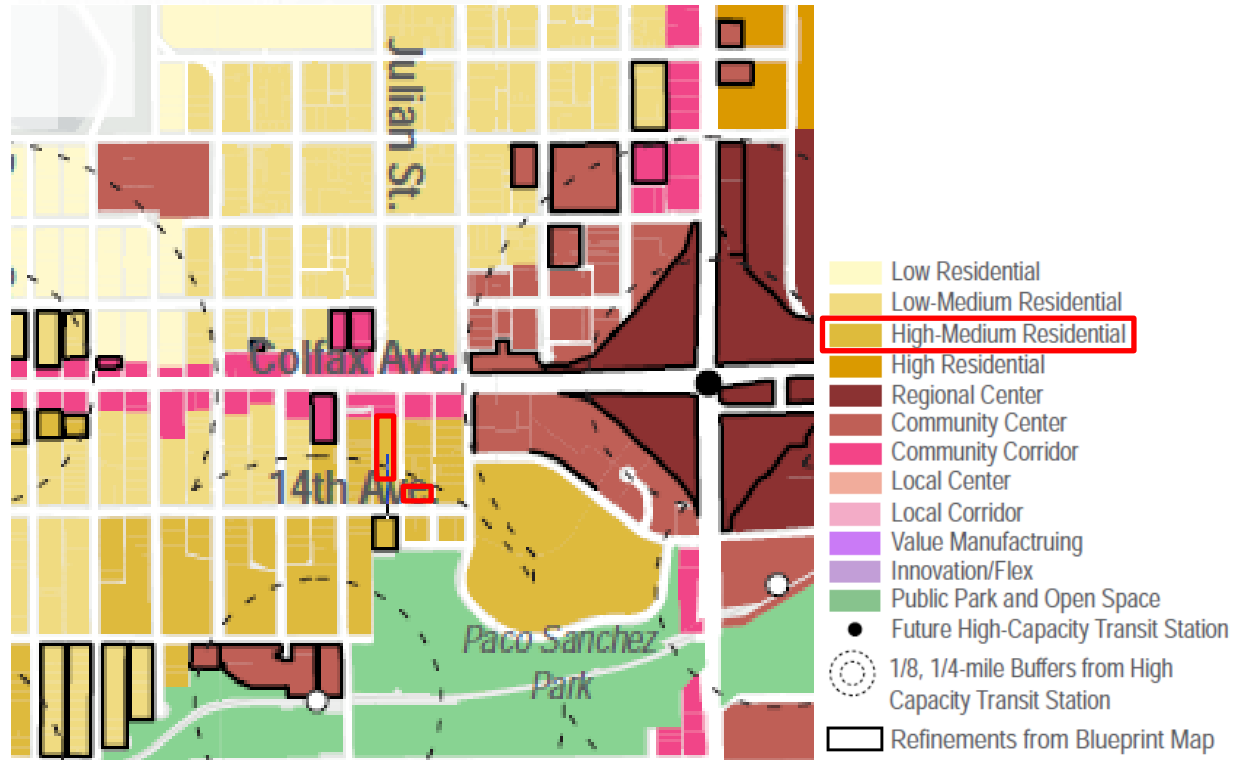

- Policy E2: Affordable Housing Diversity: "Explore strategies so affordable housing is available everywhere by implementing approaches that promote a diversity of affordable housing options within all neighborhoods and new development." (p. 212)
- Policy E3: Overall Housing Diversity: "Expand diversity of housing types and affordability to support households of different sizes, ages, and incomes in all neighborhoods." (p. 213)
- Policy E7: Economic Vitality of Corridors: "Strengthen the economic vitality of corridors to create opportunities for community-serving retail, and small-business development to stabilize small businesses at risk of involuntary displacement." (p. 219)

The proposed G-MU-5 zone district allows for multi-unit residential building forms that are required to meet Mandatory Affordable Housing requirements. Residents of these multi-unit buildings would live within a block of the West Colfax corridor and could become additional patrons of the corridor's diversity of community-serving retail and small businesses. Therefore, the proposed G-MU-5 zone district would contribute to the diversity of housing, including some affordable housing, and corridor vitality, consistent with the recommendations of the West Area Plan.

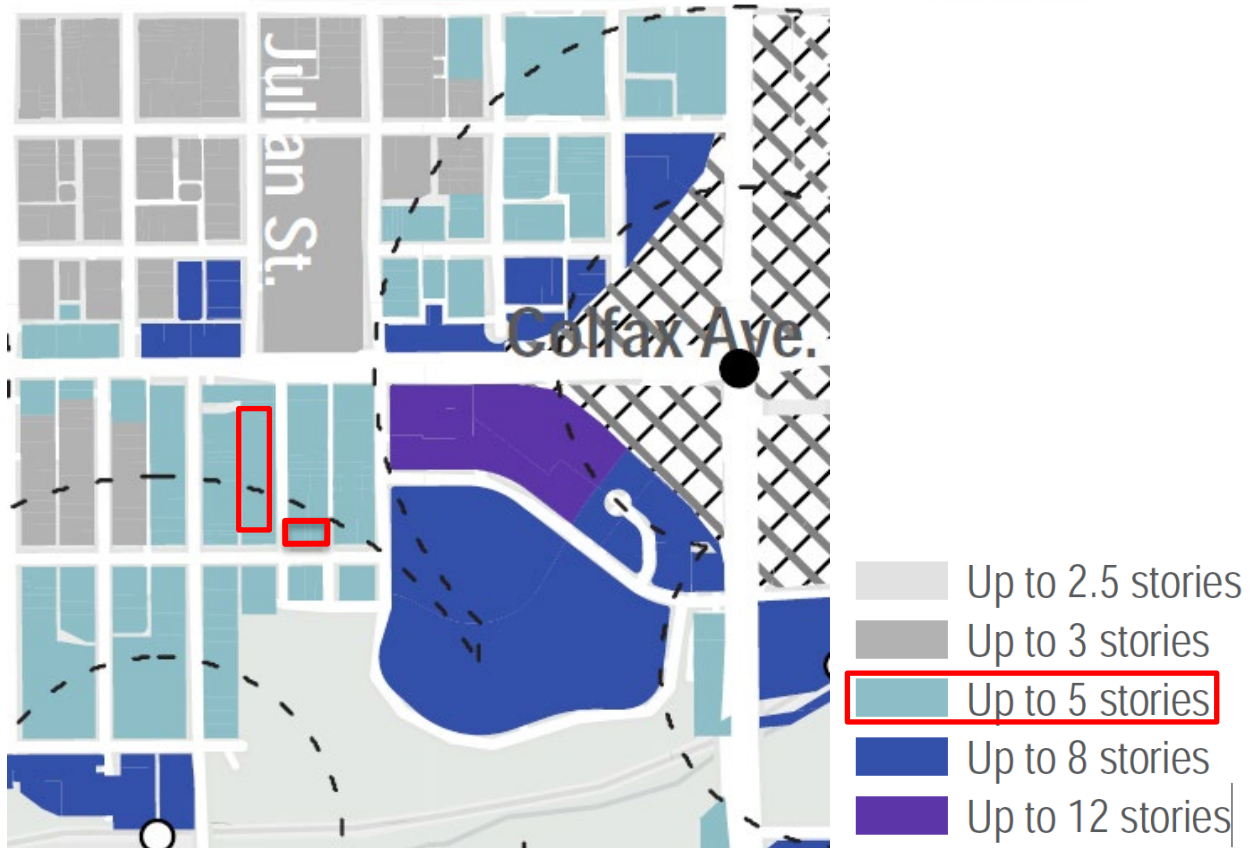

NEIGHBORHOOD CONTEXTS

FUTURE PLACES

FUTURE BASE HEIGHT GUIDANCE MAP

FUTURE HEIGHT GUIDANCE WITH INCENTIVES MAP

2. Uniformity of District Regulations and Restrictions

The proposed rezoning to G-MU-5 will result in the uniform application of zone district building form, use and design regulations.

3. Public Health, Safety and General Welfare

The proposed official map amendment furthers the public health, safety, and general welfare of the city through implementation of the city's adopted land use plans. The proposed rezoning would also facilitate the provision of additional housing units that are compatibly integrated into the surrounding neighborhood.

4. Justifying Circumstance

The application identifies the adoption of Comprehensive Plan 2040, Blueprint Denver, and the West Area Plan as the Justifying Circumstance under DZC Section 12.4.10.8.A.4, "Since the date of the approval of the existing Zone District, there has been a change to such as degree that the proposed rezoning is in the public interest. Such a change may include: Changed or changing conditions in a particular area, or in the city generally; or a city adopted plan..."

As discussed above, Blueprint Denver specifically recommends diversifying housing choice through increased density in transit-rich areas. Both Blueprint Denver and the West Area Plan recommend this area as appropriate for high medium residential uses. The plans were adopted after the date of approval of the existing zone district. Therefore, this is an appropriate justifying circumstance for the proposed rezoning.

5. Consistency with Neighborhood Context Description, Zone District Purpose and Intent Statements

The requested G-MU-5 zone district is within the General Urban Neighborhood Context. The neighborhood context “is characterized by multi-unit residential uses in a variety of building forms.” Furthermore, “Residential uses are primarily located along local and residential arterial streets” (DZC, Division 6.1.1). These areas consist of a “regular pattern of block shapes surrounded by an orthogonal street grid” (DZC, Division 6.1.2). This area of the West Colfax neighborhood consists of a wide mix of residential uses, from single unit to multi-unit, in rectangular blocks. The proposed rezoning to G-MU-5 is consistent with the neighborhood context description.

Denver Zoning Code Section 6.2.2 states the general purpose of the Residential zone districts as “promot[ing] and protect[ing] higher-density residential neighborhoods within the character of the General Urban Neighborhood context.” It “accommodates the pattern of urban house, duplex, row house, garden court, and apartment.” Furthermore, “buildings orient to the street and access is from the alley. Lot coverage is typically high accommodating a consistent, shallow front yard.” Height is limited to from three to twenty stories, depending upon the zone district. This is consistent with the G-MU-5 district as it allows for five story development of all these building forms (except row house), with a front setback requiring a small front yard. Together, this will protect the character of the higher-density residential areas in the General Urban neighborhood context.

The specific intent of the G-MU-5 zone district states “G-MU-5 is a multi unit district allowing urban house, duplex, row house, garden court, town house, and apartment building forms. The tallest building form has a maximum height of five stories” (DZC 6.2.2.2.C).

This site is surrounded on all sides by a mix of single unit, two-unit, and multi-unit residential development, in an area where adopted plan guidance calls for multi-unit residential uses with accessory dwelling units. Therefore, this proposed rezoning is consistent with the specific intent of the G-MU-5 zone district.

To Planning Board and Denver City Council,

I am writing this letter to express my support for the zoning change of 1409-1471 N Julian Street and 3317 W. 14th Ave. As a longtime adjacent neighbor, I know this zoning change will improve our neighborhood while helping the current tenants move to a newer development. The new West Area Plan supports this height and density on this block and it fits within the context of the other properties surrounding it which will help to raise our home values.

I am confident that with this zoning change to allow up to 5 stories, it allows for opportunity for new development that will undoubtedly raise my property value. As an adjacent neighbor, I look forward to new development to bring housing to allow for more market rate opportunity nearby that will support the value of my own home. In looking around the neighborhood, I am looking forward to adding these properties to the list of potential new developments that will help to raise my property value.

The new development will make way for the current residents to move into newer, more accommodating housing. The current housing at this location is starting to look rundown and the current tenants will be able to move into other nearby properties that are more suited to accommodate families with modern conveniences.

As a supporter of the West Area Plan and its intent to make our neighborhood more uniform in heights of buildings, this rezoning makes perfect sense. As an adjacent neighbor, it's nice to see the opportunity for new development around us as we continue to improve our own properties. I ask that you recommend to support the zoning change for 1409-1471 N. Julian Street to bring it into compliance with the new West Area Plan and the overall aesthetics of our neighborhood.

CONFLUENCE MINISTRIES

Passionate People Collaborating on Purpose

January 16, 2024

To Planning Board and Denver City Council,

I am writing as an active neighbor and community organizer of the West Colfax Neighborhood from Confluence Ministries in support of the zoning change for 1409-1471 N Julian Street and 3317 W. 14th Ave. Throughout the community outreach process Wazee partners has supported our community festival and engaged our neighbors from the beginning of the rezoning process.

Wazee partners held multiple neighborhood gatherings and engagements to make sure all who will be impacted were made fully aware of the application process. I was first contacted last June and helped the group find locations for their meetings that were most convenient for the neighborhood members. We continued interaction throughout the summer with their sponsorship of the neighborhood summer festival and are so grateful for their support.

We believe Wazee desires to address those who will be impacted by this rezoning and to follow guidelines for those who desire to stay in the neighborhood. We know Wazee also agrees to the requirements for those in the category in need of affordable housing. I am thinking of those who will be impacted by the stated address.

West Colfax is a neighborhood with many intricacies that I have been blessed to be a part of throughout my time leading Confluence Ministries. RE: Application, Request to Rezone 1409-71 Julian Street & 3317 West 14th Avenue from G-RH-3 to G-MU-5

Dear Community Planning & Development:

This firm represents GAO Homes Partners RLLLP, the property owner, and it's authorized agent, Endcap Holdings LLC, and the corresponding properties, 1409-71 N. Julian St. & 3317 W. 14th Ave (the "Parcels"), regarding the attached application for a zoning map amendment ("rezoning"). Based on the criteria for review in the Denver Zoning Code, we recommend that staff recommend approval to the Planning Board and City Council.

The actual property affected by this rezone consists of 2 separate and detached parcels of land shown in the below Figure1. Please see this application's comprehensive record of community outreach, as provided in Exhibit D, for further information.

The Parcels currently contain nineteen (19) residential housing apartment units that were originally constructed in 1968 and the site is underutilized given its land area. The current residents receive rental subsidy under a Project Based Section 8 Housing Assistance Payment Contract with HUD. Because these housing improvements are now functionally obsolete, and because of the extremely high annual operating cost per unit, HUD has given preliminary review approval to a re-deployment of the HAP Contract Subsidy to a new construction project at 1465-1497 Knox Court, the site of which received a rezoning approval this past June. All existing residents will be relocated to the new Knox Court project, all at the cost of the new project development.

Exhibit B

Description of Consistency with Adopted City Plans/General Review Criteria (DZC 12.4.10.7.)

The criteria for review of this rezoning application are found in DZC Section 12.4.10.7 and 12.4.10.8:

DZC Section 12.4.10.7

- 1. Consistency with Adopted Plans
- 2. Uniformity of District Regulations and Restrictions
- 3. Public Health, Safety and General Welfare

DZC Section 12.4.10.8 4

- 4. Justifying Circumstances
- 5. Consistency with Neighborhood Context Description, Zone District Purpose, and Intent Statements.

1. Consistency with Adopted Plans

The following adopted plans currently apply to this property:

- Denver Comprehensive Plan 2040 (2019)
- Blueprint Denver (2019)
- West Area Plan (2023)

Denver Comprehensive Plan 2040

The proposed rezoning is consistent with many of the adopted Denver Comprehensive Plan 2040 strategies, which are organized by vision element.

The proposed rezoning would allow for additional housing units within an established neighborhood, consistent with the following strategies in the Equitable, Affordable, and Inclusive vision element:

- Equitable, Affordable and Inclusive Goal 2, Strategy A - Create a greater mix of housing options in every neighborhood for all individuals and families (p. 28).
- Equitable, Affordable and Inclusive Goal 1, Strategy A - Increase development of housing units close to transit and mixed-use developments (p. 28).
- Equitable, Affordable and Inclusive Goal 3, Strategy B - Use land use regulations to enable and encourage the private development of affordable, missing middle and mixed-income housing, especially where close to transit (p. 28).

The proposed rezoning would enable mixed-use infill development at a location where services, infrastructure, and transit options are already in place. The proposed G-MU-5 zoning designation would allow for a broader variety of residential uses, at an intensity consistent with the desire for urban, walkable, mixed-use neighborhoods around transit, and is therefore consistent with the following strategies in the Strong and Authentic Neighborhoods vision element:

- Strong and Authentic Neighborhoods Goal 1, Strategy B - Ensure neighborhoods offer a mix of housing types and services for a diverse population (p. 34).
- Strong and Authentic Neighborhoods Goal 1, Strategy D - Encourage quality infill development that is consistent with the surrounding neighborhoods and offers opportunities for increased amenities (p. 34).
- Strong and Authentic Neighborhoods Goal 2, Strategy D - Use urban design to contribute to economic viability, public health, safety, environmental well-being, neighborhood culture and quality of life (p. 34).

The proposed rezoning is also consistent with the following strategies in the Environmentally Resilient vision element:

- Environmentally Resilient Goal 8, Strategy A - Promote infill development where infrastructure and services are already in place (p. 54).
- Environmentally Resilient Goal 8, Strategy B - Encourage mixed-use communities where residents can live, work, and play in their own neighborhoods (p. 54).
- Environmentally Resilient Goal 8, Strategy C - Focus growth by transit stations and along high and medium-capacity transit corridors (p. 54).

The requested map amendment will enable mixed-use development at an infill location where infrastructure is already in place. The requested zone district broadens the variety of uses allowing residents to live, work and play in the area; therefore, the rezoning is consistent with Denver Comprehensive Plan 2040 recommendations.

Blueprint Denver (2019)

Blueprint Denver was adopted in 2019 as a supplement to Comprehensive Plan 2040 and establishes an integrated framework for the city's land use and transportation decisions. Blueprint Denver identifies the subject property as part of a General Urban future place type within the High-Urban Context and provides guidance from the future growth strategy for the city.

Blueprint Denver Future Neighborhood Context

In Blueprint Denver, future neighborhood contexts are used to help understand differences in land use and built form and mobility options at a higher scale, between neighborhoods. The subject property is within the General Urban context in which homes vary and include "multi-unit complexes...and offer residents a mix of uses, with good street activation and connectivity". The proposed G-MU-5 zone district is a multi-unit district zone district. Since the proposed district allows a mix of housing types and allowable building forms that contribute to street activation, the proposed rezoning is appropriate and consistent with the plan.

Blueprint Denver Future Places

The Future Places map shows the subject property as part of a “High-Medium” residential area. Blueprint Denver describes these areas as having a, “mix of low-to medium-scale multi-unit residential uses with some neighborhood-serving mixed-use distributed throughout. Buildings are generally up to 8 stories in height.”

The proposed rezoning to G-MU-5 is appropriate and consistent with the “High-Medium Residential Area” plan direction and will foster a better mix of residential uses and more appropriate intensity than the current zoning allows. Blueprint Denver specifies that the maximum recommended heights are intended to provide a general scale and that factors such as “Surrounding context, including existing and planned building height” (pg. 66) should be considered for any site. Given the Blueprint Denver height guidance of up to 8 stories and the existing built environment in the immediate area and the adjacent zone districts, the proposed 5-story district is consistent with plan guidance and appropriate for this location.

Blueprint Street Types

Blueprint Denver classifies W 14th St. as a Residential Collector. The primary function of a residential collector is to collect traffic from local streets and distribute it to higher-capacity roads, such as arterial streets or highways. Residential collectors typically have a slightly higher capacity and speed limit compared to local streets but are designed to prioritize local access rather than through-traffic. The proposed G-MU-5 zone district allows a broad range of residential land uses with a shallow front setback and allows the intense land uses anticipated for this street type. Therefore, the district is consistent with the downtown arterial street types at this location.

Julian Street is mapped as a local or undesignated street. According to the plan, this street type supports “primarily residential uses, but may also include schools, civic uses, parks, small retail nodes and other similar uses. Buildings usually have a modest setback, and the depth of the setback varies by neighborhood context” (p. 160). The proposed G-MU-5 zone district would allow a mix of residential uses at an intensity and orientation consistent with this street type classification.

Blueprint Growth Strategy

Blueprint Denver’s growth strategy map is a version of the future places map, showing the aspiration for distributing future growth in Denver (p. 51). The subject property is located within the “All Other Areas of the City” growth area. This designation does not imply a complete absence of growth, but rather signifies a deliberate effort to manage and distribute growth more evenly across different areas of the city. In fact, these areas are anticipated to see around 20% of new housing growth and 10% of new employment growth by 2040 (p. 51). The proposed map amendment to G-MU-5 is consistent with the growth area in that it will allow a broad range of housing and direct more intense and appropriate growth to this area than the existing zoning allows.

Additional Applicable Strategies

The proposed rezoning is also consistent with the following strategies from Blueprint Denver:

- Land Use and Built Form - General Policy 1 - Promote and anticipate planned growth in major centers and corridors and key residential areas connected by rail service and transit priority streets (p. 72).
- Land Use and Built Form - General Policy 2 - Incentivize or require efficient development of land, especially in transit-rich areas (p. 72). The proposed map amendment is consistent with these strategies as growth will be directed to an area with rail transit service.

West Area Plan (2023)

The West Area Plan supersedes the previous neighborhood plans in the designated region, including the West Colfax Plan of 2006. It serves as the small area plan encompassing the West Colfax, Villa Park, Sun Valley, Barnum, Barnum West, and Valverde neighborhoods. This comprehensive plan outlines a vision and policy guidance for various aspects such as land use, urban design, housing, mobility, parks, the local economy, and more, with a focus on the next two decades. Input from the community has highlighted the need to expand housing options within the West Area and diversify the range of available housing to accommodate households with varying income levels and lifestyles.

Like Blueprint, the plan proposes a High-Medium Residential land use and built form category for the properties in question. These areas are prioritized for future growth, with an emphasis on maintaining and creating authentic spaces that resonate with the surrounding community members (refer to Policy L8). The proposed approach includes a blend of multi-unit residential uses at a low to medium scale, alongside mixed-use developments that cater to the neighborhood's needs. While the maximum base heights are typically set at 5 stories, certain limited locations permit heights of up to 8 stories, as indicated in the Base Heights Map.

According to the Future Height Guidance with Incentives Map, the subject properties are allowed a maximum of 7 stories when Expanding Housing Affordability (EHA) height incentives are applied. However, in this case, the applicant is seeking a zoning district with a maximum height restriction of 5 stories.

2. Uniformity of District Regulations and Restrictions

The proposed rezoning to G-MU-5 will result in the uniform application of zone district building form, use and design regulations.

3. Public Health, Safety and General Welfare

The proposed official map amendment furthers the public health, safety, and general welfare through implementation of the city's adopted land use plans. The proposed rezoning would also facilitate increased housing density near services and amenities and promote a walkable, urban neighborhood within walking distance to public transit.

Exhibit C

Additional Criteria/Description of Justifying Circumstances and Neighborhood Context (DZC 12.4.10.8.)

4. Justifying Circumstances

Changed or changing conditions in the area and city adopted plans serve as the Justifying Circumstances under DZC Section 12.4.10.8.A.4, “Since the date of the approval of the existing Zone District, there has been a change to such a degree that the proposed rezoning is in the public interest. Such a change may include: “Changed or changing conditions in a particular area, or in the city generally; or a city adopted plan....” Since the approval of the existing G-MU-5 zone district, the City has adopted the Comprehensive Plan 2040, Blueprint Denver, and has approved the West Area Plan. As stated throughout this application, the proposed rezoning meets the intent of these plans and is in the public interest; therefore, this is an appropriate justifying circumstance for the proposed rezoning.

5. Consistency with Neighborhood Context Description, Zone District Purpose, and Intent Statements

In accordance with the Denver Zoning Code, the General Urban (G-) Context is characterized by a range of multi-unit residential uses presented in diverse building forms. It is intended to foster a dense urban character through the presence of moderate to high residential structures, as well as low to moderate commercial and mixed-use developments in suitable locations.

Within this neighborhood context, the proposed G-MU-5 zone district aligns appropriately with the recommended zoning regulations and height guidelines. The purpose of residential districts is to facilitate and safeguard high-density residential neighborhoods while maintaining the overall character of the General Urban Context.

These regulations permit the establishment of multi-unit districts featuring a variety of residential building forms. The G-MU-5 zone district specifically accommodates urban houses, duplexes, row houses, garden courts, townhouses, and apartment buildings. Notably, the tallest allowable building form is limited to a maximum height of five stories.

Considering that the subject sites are served by local and collector streets, the street classifications and desired building heights in this area harmonize with the intended purpose and goals of the designated zone district.

Equity

Rezoning the subject properties to allow for multi-unit residential units can contribute to increased equity within the City and County of Denver. By enabling the development of multi-unit housing, the proposed rezoning promotes greater housing diversity and affordability. This, in turn, helps address the housing shortage and provides more options for individuals and families seeking housing in the city. Multi-unit residential developments have the potential to accommodate a larger number of residents within a given area, thereby supporting a more inclusive and accessible community. By expanding housing opportunities and creating a mix of housing types, upzoning fosters a more equitable city where people of different income levels can access suitable housing options and enjoy the benefits of living in Denver. It should also be noted that the Mandatory Affordable Housing Program requires new residential development of 10 or more units to include a portion of affordable housing.

Outreach Summary

As we approach the proposed rezoning of 1409-1471 Julian Street, we mimic the City of Denver process prior to formal submittal. From the beginning, we identified all of the Community Stakeholders both noted by the City from the preapplication process and from institutional knowledge of relationships in the West Colfax neighborhood. The team held numerous meetings with various stakeholders and Registered Neighborhood Organizations summarized in the next pages. Additionally, we held a Neighborhood meeting including every property owner within a 200 foot radius of the proposed project as part of our outreach and a meeting with the impacted tenants of 1409-1471 Julian Street.

In our outreach efforts, we contacted all of the Registered Neighborhood Organizations mentioned by the city in hopes of setting meetings but did not hear back from INC or Strong Denver. Other than those groups, we held fruitful discussions with all suggested organizations.

Meeting Summary

Marcus Pachner and Amy O'Brien from The Pachner Company and Tyler Downs met informally with Jaime Aguilar, a member of the West Area Plan Steering Committee, to discuss the proposed rezoning of 1409-1471 Julian in the context of the newly adopted West Area Plan and the authentic Community Outreach with neighbors to ensure all of the neighborhood suggestions are incorporated into the planning process.

As discussed, Wazee Partners has been a longtime owner in the West Colfax area and knows the complexities associated with conducting true community outreach around projects. We talked about the plan moving forward to make sure all groups are consulted and included in the process as we continue with the rezoning. In addition, the consistency in zoning for the West Area Plan was discussed as well.

Moving forward, we decided to make sure as many West Area Stakeholders as possible are in the loop on our planning process and up to date on where we are in the City process. Transparency and Inclusion are the main goals with Community Engagement on the project.

Attendees: The Pachner Company, Wazee Partners, WECAN: Shantelle Mulliniks, Jonathan Pira

Meeting Summary

The team from The Pachner Company and Tyler Downs met via ZOOM with leadership of WECAN to discuss the proposed rezoning of 1409-1471 Julian in the context of the newly adopted West Area Plan.

WECAN is familiar with the Menola Homes Project and the current rezoning of 1465-1497 Knox Court as a new Affordable Housing development. As it is related, Shantelle and Jonathan were agreeable with the proposed height and density of the Julian Street project. The two board members did differ in their opinion of on-site parking. Shantelle was agreeable with the 1 to 1 parking ratio. Jonathan, however, suggested that the transit infrastructure could serve the residents and neighborhood well with less on-site parking.

WECAN is largely supportive of the proposed project and will continue to be involved as the City process continues.

The team from The Pachner Company and Wazee Partners met with leadership of SLCG to discuss the proposed rezoning of 1409-1471 Julian in the context of the newly adopted West Area Plan.

SLCG is familiar with the Menola Homes Project and the current rezoning of 1465-1497 Knox Court as a new Affordable Housing development. Tom was supportive of the change in zoning to keep consistency with the newly adopted West Area Plan.

As follow-up, Tom asked that we present at the monthly Sloan's Lake Citizens Group meeting to discuss the proposed project on Julian Street.

Sloan's Lake Citizens Group

Jun 14, 2023

Location: ZOOM

Attendees: The Pachner Company, Wazee Partners, Sloan's Lake Citizens Group, Tom Brunn, Neighbors

Meeting Summary

The team from The Pachner Company and Wazee Partners presented to SLCG to discuss the proposed rezoning of 1409-1471 Julian in the context of the newly adopted West Area Plan.

Overall the group is supportive of the project. There were questions regarding displacement which we addressed in mention of the Menola Homes Project. The group was familiar and agreeable to the new affordable project as an option. The group was knowledgeable about the West Area Plan and the changes that would be coming to the area to make a more consistent zoning. The group did emphasize the importance (necessity) of on-site parking. .

As follow-up, the group asked that we continue to keep them up to date as the planning process progresses. SLCG would like to see the site plan once we are at that stage.

Neighbor Meeting

June 27, 2023

Location: Dwell Church, 3275 W 14th Ave., Denver, CO 80204

Attendees: The Pachner Company, Wazee Partners, 8 Neighbors primarily from 14th and Knox and 14th and Julian

Meeting Summary

The team from The Pachner Company and Wazee Partners presented the proposed zoning to the most immediate neighbors who will be impacted by the proposed rezoning.

Overall the group is supportive of the project. The group of neighbors has been very involved in the newly adopted West Area Plan, so they were informed as to the density and height presented in the new plan. These immediate neighbors are supportive of the rezoning and were more curious about the timeline of the city process. In addition, there was a robust discussion around parking. As immediate neighbors to multi-family housing, their request was for an INCREASE in the parking required in the city code. They argued that most of the residents of these developments have more than 1 car per unit so the current parking guidelines do not meet the current need in the neighborhood. The neighbors are also well-informed on the Menola Homes project and understood the impact of that project on the immediate neighborhood.

As follow-up, the group asked that we continue to keep them up to date as the planning process progresses.

Location: Rodolfo “Corky” Gonzales Branch Library, 1498 Irving St., Denver, CO 80204

Attendees: The Pachner Company, Wazee Partners, 7 Tenants, and translator from Community Language Cooperative

Meeting Summary

The team from The Pachner Company and Wazee Partners presented the proposed zoning to the tenants. The presentation was thorough and focused on what the rezoning means for the tenants and the timeline for their move to the Menola Homes. The tenants primarily expressed relief to know the process will be at least 2-3 years, their section 8 benefit follows them to Menola Homes, and that they will continue to be notified throughout the process. The Pachner Company offered to present to any of the tenants who could not attend the meeting and the group has received an email with the presentation as well as The Pachner Company contact information to contact with any questions as the process continues. The tenants asked questions about relocation to the new project which The Pachner Company and Wazee Partners emphasized is fully paid for and will only happen once Menola Homes is finished. If the Menola Homes Project does not come to fruition, Wazee Partners will provide housing within a 4 block radius on another scattered site for affordable housing. Regardless, the process is at least 2-3 years.

Wire Fraud Alert

This Notice is not intended to provide legal or professional advice. If you have any questions, please consult with a lawyer.

All parties to a real estate transaction are targets for wire fraud and many have lost hundreds of thousands of dollars because they simply relied on the wire instructions received via email, without further verification. If funds are to be wired in conjunction with this real estate transaction, we strongly recommend verbal verification of wire instructions through a known, trusted phone number prior to sending funds.

In addition, the following non-exclusive self-protection strategies are recommended to minimize exposure to possible wire fraud.

- NEVER RELY on emails purporting to change wire instructions. Parties to a transaction rarely change wire instructions in the course of a transaction.
- ALWAYS VERIFY wire instructions, specifically the ABA routing number and account number, by calling the party who sent the instructions to you. DO NOT use the phone number provided in the email containing the instructions, use phone numbers you have called before or can otherwise verify. Obtain the phone number of relevant parties to the transaction as soon as an escrow account is opened. DO NOT send an email to verify as the email address may be incorrect or the email may be intercepted by the fraudster.
- USE COMPLEX EMAIL PASSWORDS that employ a combination of mixed case, numbers, and symbols. Make your passwords greater than eight (8) characters. Also, change your password often and do NOT reuse the same password for other online accounts.
- USE MULTI-FACTOR AUTHENTICATION for email accounts. Your email provider or IT staff may have specific instructions on how to implement this feature.

Wire Fraud Alert

This Notice is not intended to provide legal or professional advice. If you have any questions, please consult with a lawyer.

All parties to a real estate transaction are targets for wire fraud and many have lost hundreds of thousands of dollars because they simply relied on the wire instructions received via email, without further verification. If funds are to be wired in conjunction with this real estate transaction, we strongly recommend verbal verification of wire instructions through a known, trusted phone number prior to sending funds.

In addition, the following non-exclusive self-protection strategies are recommended to minimize exposure to possible wire fraud.

- NEVER RELY on emails purporting to change wire instructions. Parties to a transaction rarely change wire instructions in the course of a transaction.
- ALWAYS VERIFY wire instructions, specifically the ABA routing number and account number, by calling the party who sent the instructions to you. DO NOT use the phone number provided in the email containing the instructions, use phone numbers you have called before or can otherwise verify. Obtain the phone number of relevant parties to the transaction as soon as an escrow account is opened. DO NOT send an email to verify as the email address may be incorrect or the email may be intercepted by the fraudster.
- USE COMPLEX EMAIL PASSWORDS that employ a combination of mixed case, numbers, and symbols. Make your passwords greater than eight (8) characters. Also, change your password often and do NOT reuse the same password for other online accounts.
- USE MULTI-FACTOR AUTHENTICATION for email accounts. Your email provider or IT staff may have specific instructions on how to implement this feature.

SLOAN'S LAKE CITIZENS' GROUP

February 13, 2024

Re: Wazee Partners – represented by Prachner Company
1409 – 1471 Julian Street – Rezoning to G-MU-5

To Whom It May Concern:

The Sloan's Lake Citizens' Group (SLCG) is the Registered Neighborhood Organization for the area bounded by West 29th Avenue on the north and West 10th Avenue on the south, running from Federal Boulevard to Sheridan Boulevard. Our organization has valued and listened to the diverse perspectives of our members for over 40 years. With few exceptions, it is the policy of the SLCG to provide information and to be a forum to inform, rather than to speak for our diverse community. This prevents the SLCG from taking a stand on issues where there might not be information or where the members might disagree. Instead, the desire of the SLCG is to promote collaboration for compromise solutions that balance the interests of property owners, business owners and residents while protecting public health and safety.

The existing rental housing units 1409 to 1471 Julian Street are within the boundaries of our RNO. At the June 14th, 2023 SLCG meeting, Amy O'Brien with the Prachner Company presented a proposal for the rezoning and redevelopment of the existing 19 affordable rental housing units. The current zoning, G-RH-3, will not allow the owner/developer to increase the housing density of the property. The Sloan's Lake and West Colfax neighborhoods are in desperate need of additional housing units and specifically affordable rental housing units. It is our understanding that after redevelopment, all the existing residents will be relocated as required by HUD. SLCG would prefer that all the new replaced affordable housing units be located on the Julian Street property. If there are more than 190 new rental units in the proposed project, 10% of the total units should be affordable rental units. Too many times required affordable units are not located on the project property, making the bulk of the units not affordable for the residents living and working in the neighborhood.

A straw vote was taken of members, both in-person and on Zoom. A majority of the votes were in favor of the rezoning from G-RH-3 to G-MU-5. There was one negative vote and several abstained from voting. Sloan's Lake Citizens' Group looks forward to continuing dialogue with the developer and their architects as the program vision unfolds and more detail is available.

Sincerely,

Strong opposition

Your comment:

I live at 1418 Knox Ct., adjacent to/just west of the Julian St site. While I support redeveloping that area, I strongly oppose rezoning it from three to five stories. The population density in this area is already incredibly high with its current three-story maximum, making parking, traffic, and especially trash a growing concern. With so many office buildings downtown standing empty, I would love to see developers turn their efforts toward converting those structures to residential units before they start building new 5 and 5+ story buildings. (How long has 1515 Julian, just a block away, stood empty? Why do we need more similar buildings?) Two concerns with increasing pop density along Julian St are trash collection and parking. The 1400-block alley between Knox and Julian is already lousy with trash bins from both streets, and Julian is currently only single-family row homes. The city is not even consistent right now in collecting trash and recycling from every bin every week, and reports to Denver Trash about uncollected trash/recycling go ignored and unanswered—unacceptable now that homeowners are required to pay for a service that may or may not happen at collectors' whims. It's a mess back there, constantly, and Denver's plan to require two or three bins per household in already high-density areas has already failed. What is the trash collection plan for a new even higher-density development on that plot? In addition, what is the plan for parking? Underground is the only solution, but even then, one parking spot per unit will not be enough. Please, from the bottom of my heart, preserve the integrity of the emerging personality and ethos of the West Colfax neighborhood—all new construction around this area south of Colfax consists of beautiful, well-designed three-story single-family townhomes. Setting a five-story building down in the middle of that is unnecessary and will be a monument to greed. To increase the number of much-needed residential properties in Denver, let's stick with new three-story townhomes in this emerging neighborhood. There will be an impact, yes, but NOW is the time to decide—by rejecting this rezoning change—that the impact will be well conceived, well planned, and considerate of the longterm development of a neighborhood that has so much potential!

Hi Matthew,

My apologies for a delayed message regarding the rezoning for 1409-1471 Julian. I am writing to oppose the requested zoning change to G-MU-5 for this development. I live at 1416 Knox Ct and a 5 story building directly behind my home will be detrimental to the area. There are not enough large roadways between Julian, Knox and 14th st to accommodate the traffic and lack of parking that we are already experiencing.

While I understand that Denver is in need of housing, I don't believe that re-zoning these 2 parcels of land is right for this neighborhood. My main concern for opposing this request for rezoning is a matter of building scale, but I am also concerned about available parking, increased traffic, environmental affects, and a concentration of affordable housing. I believe the character of Julian, which is a small street and not an artery or connector street, will suffer if this zoning change passes. A 3 story apartment building would be sufficient and would be better accommodated with the density increase in the immediate neighborhood therefore a zoning change is not needed.

Approximately 1/3 of the current Knox Court property owners purchased on the 1400 block of Knox Court, after the 2010 re-zoning with the correct assumption that the zoning would not change only a few years later when the West Area Plan was published in 2023. How is it fair that this property owner can request rezoning after we all have purchased property knowing and following the current zoning designation? How can Denver residents trust that any plan the city makes will remain in place if large property owners can request rezoning whenever they want to capitalize on more rental or condominium units? Allowing this rezoning to take place is not the right move for our neighborhood. I urge the Denver Planning board to consider the needs of all residents and homeowners in this neighborhood, not just those with big pockets looking to make a profit.

I am in Real Estate and the long term value of the immediate neighborhood would be negatively impacted by a 5 story building on a very significant level due to an immense increase in the density of people, traffic, waste and lack of sunlight for the community. The community as it stands now can barely withhold the amount of people, cars and waste. There are other projects currently in motion that will help with the lack of housing so a 5 story building in this space is not needed!

Thank you for your time and consideration of my opinion for the greater good of the immediate community.

Brittany Brennan

Official Map Amendment, application #2022I-00253, rezoning 1409-1471 N Julian and 3317 W 14th Avenue from G-RH-3 to G-MU-5.
Denver Planning Board Hearing on January 17, 2024 at 3:00pm

Proposed Zoning designation - G-MU-5

Multi-Unit 5 (G-MU-5) G-MU-5 is a multi unit district allowing urban house, duplex, row house, garden court, town house, and apartment building forms. The tallest building form has a maximum height of five stories.

I am writing to oppose the requested zoning change to G-MU-5 for this development. While I understand that Denver is in need of housing, I don't believe that re-zoning these 2 parcels of land is right for this neighborhood. I understand that housing is a priority for the city, but this neighborhood has multiple large development projects in the pipeline (many owned by the same company), and many of them are requesting rezoning, just months after the West Area Plan was published. My main concern for opposing this request for rezoning is a matter of building scale, and not out of nimby-ism, but I am also concerned about available parking, increased traffic, environmental affects, and a concentration of affordable housing.

I believe the character of Julian, which is a small street and not an artery or connector street, will suffer if this zoning change passes. Denver is growing rapidly, but big fast growth is not always good for the community. This change is forcing out long time residents, who can't afford to live and work here. Although this property owner is proposing affordable housing, all new housing will ultimately result in higher rents for tenants even if they are subsidized rents. More units will also result in less available parking and more traffic for current residents.

Approximately 1/3 of the current Knox Court property owners purchased on the 1400 block of Knox Court, after the 2010 re-zoning with the correct assumption that the zoning would not change only a few years later when the West Area Plan was published in 2023. How is it fair that this property owner can request rezoning after we all have purchased property knowing and following the current zoning designation? How can Denver residents trust that any plan the city makes will remain in place if large property owners can request rezoning whenever they want to capitalize on more rental or condominium units?

Allowing this rezoning to take place is not the right move for our neighborhood. I urge the Denver Planning board to consider the needs of all residents and homeowners in this neighborhood, not just those with big pockets looking to make a profit.

Below is are other consideration and questions for the planning board and development team:

1. Denver Zoning Code Section 12.4.10. This section of the code was cited in the Planning Board agenda, but the content is very vague. What part of this section is being used for this application?

2. What actual height is the owner requesting for this redevelopment?

- What is the actual height, as measured from the Front Base Plain?

Based on images on google maps, it appears that the front of the current building is approximately 7-8 stairs up from the street. According to the zoning regulation 13.1.2.3 Height in Stories :

A. Intent To provide an easy reference for visualizing building height, to provide an appropriate consistency of building scale and to shape and/or maintain neighborhood character.

B. Stories (max) Rule of Measurement

1. Overall height in stories shall be measured as the total number of stories. See Figure 13.1-4.
2. A Story shall count towards the total number of stories when:
 - a. The Story has its finished floor surface entirely above the Front Base Plane or the Building Specific Base Plane, where applicable; or
 - b. the Story is located below a story which has its finished floor surface more than 6 feet above the Front base plane or the Building Specific Base Plane, where applicable; or
 - c. The Story is located below a story which has its finished floor surface more than 6 feet above the finished grade for more than 50% of the total building perimeter; or
 - d. The Story is located below a story which has its finished floor surface more than 12 feet above finished grade at any point.

Re: 1409-1471 Julian Street

Dear Property Owner or Resident,

Endcap Holdings, LLC, a Denver based Colorado limited liability company, has entered into a contract to purchase 1409-1471 Julian Street (Julian Parcel) and 3315-3317 West 14th Avenue (14th Avenue Parcel) in the Denver West Colfax neighborhood. The Julian Parcel consists approximately of 50,572 sq. ft. (1.161 acres) and currently contains 17 residential units. The 14th Avenue Parcel consists of 8,189 sq. ft. (0.188 acres) and currently contains a duplex residential improvement. The wood frame and brick residential improvements were initially constructed in 1968 and are now at the end of their useful life. The two parcels are located within a half block of each other, between West 14th Avenue and West Colfax Avenue.

The zoning application requests a change in the zoning from G-RH-3 to G-MU-5. The intent of the re-zoning is to increase the density to permit the new construction of multi-story residential housing units in accordance with the recently adopted West Area Plan. The increase in density can only be achieved through an increase in the improvement height from 3 story zoning to 5 story zoning, with additional stories above the 5 stories being permitted upon the provision of additional affordable housing units .

Date: June 27, 2023

Time: 6:00pm – 7:00pm Note: Meeting will adjourn early if all questions and comments have been heard. Questions that are not able to be addressed during this time will be addressed following the meeting.

Where: Dwell Church, 3275 W 14th Ave., Suite 101A, Denver, CO 80204

Thank you,

The Pachner Company and Wazee Partners

- How many stories?

During a community meeting for Sloans Lake Citizen’s group, (where adjacent residents were invited by a community group), the Development consultant indicated that although they are seeking a G-MU-5 zoning designation, but were not sure of how many units would be built, but that they are planning on excavating for parking. Generally, this is an expensive under taking and a property owner would not have preliminary plans, and hire a consultant if they didn’t know exactly how many units they could fit on the property, and ultimately, how much revenue they would receive.

The application states the following: “According to the Future Height Guidance with Incentives Map, the subject properties are allowed a maximum of 7 stories when Expanding Housing Affordability (EHA) incentives are applied. However, in this case, the applicant is seeking a zoning district with a maximum height restriction of 5 stories.” (page 8,9)

This development team is interested in building additional stories due to the affordability in the plan, as indicated in a letter I received (see above). Is this the case? I urge the planning board to get an honest, transparent response from the Development team as to the actual fully built height for the property. What happens if they decide to go for future stories after presenting to the planning board and residents? Would this change be allowed? The letter states that “... additional stories above the 5 stories being permitted upon the provision of additional affordable housing units.”

3. Building Scale. The proposal if approved (and likely more as indicated by the development consultant during a community meeting), would account for approximately 3/4 of the entire block of Julian from 14th to Colfax. The blue line below indicates the average depth of the U-MU-5 zoning designation.

4. Details of the development. What are the projected numbers for the development? How many units and parking spaces? I am concerned that this development team will add units further in the process, and should be transparent about the size and scale of the proposed apartment building.

The application indicated that “HUD has given preliminary review approval to a re-deployment of the HAP Contract Subsidy to a new construction project at 1465-1497 Knox Court.” Does this mean that there all of the affordable units will be moved to the Knox Court development?

5. Environmental Affects - Save mature trees and sun/shade balance. The neighborhood will be negatively affected by increased shade cast by a 5 story building, and the loss of valuable irreplaceable mature trees. With this plan, will the existing mature trees be protected? Currently, there are not many mature trees in the area, and this site has a handful of very large, mature trees which provide much needed shade for the sidewalks, as well as habitat for wildlife. Even if these trees are removed for the development and replaced with new, smaller trees, these new tree would take an extremely long time to mature, if ever - to the size of existing trees. It is extremely important to protect and preserve the existing mature landscape in this climate.

“Large species [of trees] like London planes, beech and oak need expensive, carefully engineered tree pits to help them grow safely surrounded by concrete and to prevent their roots from pushing up pavements. Such costs are more than offset, though, when we value nature – a single mature oak produces hundreds of thousands of litres of oxygen per year and supports thousands of species of birds, insects, lichen and fungus.

Size really matters with trees. The annual net ecological benefit of planting a large species tree is 92% greater than planting a small one. Mature street trees do everything from having a positive effect on infant birth weight in lower socio-economic demographics, to increasing resilience to major life events among people who live within sight of them. Consumers spend more on streets that are lined with large trees.

Large street trees are the most valuable green infrastructure asset cities have and when that value is overlooked, disasters happen. Even winning the UK’s “tree of the year” competition in 2020 couldn’t save Hackney’s Happy Man Tree from being felled in 2021 to make way for a new housing development.”

“...newly planted trees will take years and even decades to grow to their full carbon absorbing potential, and we cannot ignore the immediate threat from the deforestation of our already-existing, mature, working forestlands as we face the colossal challenge of climate change. According to the National Conference of State Legislatures, our domestic forests sequester up to 15% of the greenhouse gas emissions generated in this country each year, but over 37 million acres of U.S. forests still face a severe threat of devastation.”

What is proposed for any other green space on the site? Many existing tenants have dogs and rely on the backyard green space for their pets and family activities. This proposal will affect the current sun/shade of the area. With electric bills on the rise, many homeowners are investing in solar energy to save on money and do some good for the environment. For some, this is a large investment, which takes months of planning. If a 5+ story building is built adjacent to a solar array, homeowners will lose out on a big financial investment. How is it fair to re-zone a property for a large developer when the single homeowner is losing a small nest egg that was invested for energy savings? It again appears as though the city of Denver is siding with big business and doesn’t care for the individual homeowners that are doing their part to make Denver a wonderful place to live.

6. Neighborhood character and current developments. Has this proposal taken into account all of the existing and proposed development in West Colfax Neighborhood, but in particular this area of Knox Court? Westridge Redevelopment is a huge affordable development planned close to Arroyo Village, which is planning to build hundreds of new units as tall as 7 stories.

Knox Apartments, which proposes approximately 60 units, is planned for the corner of 14th and Knox Court. Does this re-zoning proposal take these pipeline projects into account? Has the planning board considered what multiple large scale development projects would mean for neighborhood traffic, parking, character, etc?

7. Additional GAO properties. The owners of this development also own a property one parcel over and another on Knox Court that applied for re-zoning last year. Has the planning board looked at how the development of all of these properties would affect the neighborhood, traffic, parking, etc?

8. Trash and sanitation. These properties are not well maintained. The dumpsters for these apartment complexes are always in bad shape. trash is left outside of the dumpsters, sometimes for weeks at a time, until the City of Denver has large pick up days. Trash also spills into the alleyway, causing health and safety issues for the neighborhood. I have personally noticed rodents and cockroaches around these areas and have reported the unsanitary conditions to the City of Denver.

9. Concentration of Affordable housing. This neighborhood has a tremendous amount of affordable units concentrated in this area, and more apartment units planned in the pipeline. A summary of known affordable and proposed housing includes:

- Arroyo Village, an affordable housing project and transitional homeless shelter is located down the street near the Knox Court light rail Station.
- Westridge ReDevelopment - a planned mixed-income project, located on the 1300 block of Knox Court, which is proposing a few hundred additional units
- Knox Apartments, proposed for the corner of 14th and Knox, which would add an additional 60+ units to the area.
- Knox Court development between Colfax and 14th.

There is a great need to more housing in Denver - especially affordable housing. In this immediate area, there is currently a large amount of concentrated affordable housing, both existing and in the pipeline. How does the planning board intend to address this issue? Studies have shown, that the best, safest, most successful housing development projects include mixed-income populations, that are spread out or dispersed throughout the community. There are already a large number of affordable units. It would be best for this neighborhood, and Denver metropolitan region in general, to have all types of housing evenly distributed throughout the city and not concentrated in one area, let alone two blocks of a neighborhood.

“U.S. housing policies promulgated by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) have placed increasing emphasis on dispersing housing assistance in order to de-concentrate poverty. The Low Income Housing Tax Credit (LIHTC) program, the nation’s largest affordable housing subsidy program, is not administered by HUD and therefore not closely monitored for compliance with poverty de-concentration objectives. In fact, several provisions of the LIHTC enabling statute provide incentives to concentrate LIHTC properties within high-poverty census tracts.”

“If you only build more of it in the cities, then you are never really addressing the problem of diversity and integration,” said state Senate President Pro Tem Martin Looney, D-New Haven. “There has to be a push to increase affordable housing in the suburbs.”

10. Parking and Traffic. How would this potential new development account for the need for additional parking? The current zoning requires a minimum amount of parking for residences, which is proving to not be enough for the large amount of development in the area. Two sets of condos on Knox Court completed after 2015 only required 1 parking space per unit, for 2 and 3 bedroom condos. This is slowly causing a parking problem in the neighborhood. We have already seen what large developments with inadequate parking has done to other Denver neighborhood, such as The Highlands, where it is almost impossible to find parking for residents. It is also difficult to find parking for those who want to go to dinner.

I understand that the planning board is trying to plan for the need of additional housing with a push towards transit-orientated neighborhoods, and I agree that living in an area with strong public transit is desirable, but Denver isn't there yet. During the past few years, the RTD has suspended numerous bus routes, due to driver shortages and fewer passengers - and this was happening way before the COVID pandemic. Denver is historically a car city and a majority of residents own cars. It would be wonderful is we had a safe, reliable public transportation network, including safe bike lanes to reduce our dependance on cars, but that is not currently the case.

- How does the Planning Board expect Denver residents to build for transit-oriented communities, when the public transit isn't in place to support such growth patterns?

- Would there be any concessions made for residents, such as having parking permits? During the summer months, Girls, Inc. has camp and various workshops and people affiliated with it park all along Knox Court, making it difficult for residents and guests to park along the street.

One member of “WECAN” is quoted in the application stating that the current transit infrastructure supports this and other developments in the area. I strongly disagree with this statement. Not only have bus routes been suspended due to the pandemic and low ridership, but the light rail is very unsafe and cannot be relied on. “[one member] suggested that the transit infrastructure could serve the residents and neighborhood well with less on-site parking.” (page 19 of the re-zoning application)

Lastly, I personally feel unsafe as a female walking around the neighborhood streets and waiting at transit stops at night, due to poor street lights. Typically, there are only about 2 lights per block. This means that I would only feel safe using public transportation during daylight hours.

I am concerned that all of the planned construction in the area (i.e. Westridge increasing from around 200 to 700 units), and current construction in the area (i.e. 196 units directly across Colfax from subject) is not being taken into account when evaluating this application. Looking north down Knox, an 8-story building on the other side of Colfax has appeared to be completed for a couple of years. No one lives there though – if demand for rentals is so high in this area, why has this new building stood vacant for so long?

According to HUD’s “Market-at-a-Glance” report (<https://www.huduser.gov/portal/ushmc/mag.html>) for the Denver Metro area, while overall the population has increased the past couple of years, the net migration is negative. People are moving from this area and I don’t think the city’s Comprehensive Plan 2040, Blueprint Denver, or the West Area Plan consider the far-reaching consequences of COVID-19, since all were adopted and/or amended prior to the pandemic.

For example, many office buildings are struggling nationwide with many jobs shifting to teleworking or work-from-home situations. Denver has launched an Adaptive Reuse Pilot program that will help to convert office building into housing units.

In addition, these plans all reflect that this area has a significantly higher percentage of renters when compared to the city. This leads to more housing instability and rezoning these locations to increase rentals will not be beneficial to this neighborhood. The units that will be offered will not contribute to diversity in the housing as reflected in their application. And I find the applicant’s response that “any replacement housing will be subject to EHA” to be quite underwhelming. Meeting the requirements of the EHA is not taking or making any effort to actually expand housing diversity in this area.

EXPANDING HOUSING DIVERSITY - providing a better and more inclusive range of housing in all neighborhoods.

For Housing Diversity, this area’s average score is 4 out of 5, with the area scoring low on the amount of income restricted units. Specific metrics are defined below, along with considerations that align with the goals of the FNE Area Plan and Blueprint Denver. The applicant is expected to consider additional proposals that are identified in Equity Menu of Strategies attached to this document.

Most of the homeownership opportunities within 2 blocks of the subject have been created by demolishing a small 1-story house and building 4 townhomes in its place. All of these “new builds” are 2 or 3 stories high. There is already a lot of rental unit increases planned for this area. Increasing these units further and permitting the buildings to be higher than all of the “new builds” will further discourage homeownership in this neighborhood.
