

Jack Teter is the Political Director for Planned Parenthood of the Rocky Mountains and Planned Parenthood Votes Colorado. He leads PP's Colorado legislative and policy efforts, as well as independent electoral programming. Prior to joining PP, Jack worked in education policy, and served as a campaign manager and aide for Representative Pete Lee (D- Colorado Springs). Jack graduated cum laude from Colorado College with a degree in Religion and gender studies, and he is an experienced organizer at the intersection of progressive politics and faith communities. He lives in a cooperative house in Denver, and serves on the boards of One Colorado, and Inside/Out Youth Services in Colorado Springs. Jack was the first transgender staffer in the Colorado legislature.