Approval needed for special counsel SGR LLC to represent the City and County of Denver and/or its employees in Civil Litigation matters.

This contract needs to be extended to allow SGR, LLC to continue litigating civil rights cases on behalf of Denver and its employees that are ongoing. These cases include the following: Lewis, et al. v. Veith, et al.; Montoya v. Denver, et al.; Quintana v. Denver, et al.; Driscoll v. Denver, et al.; Peters v. Denver, et al.; and Estate of Finn v. Denver, et al. SGR, LLC has been used by Denver as outside counsel on conflict cases and for overflow work for 20 years. The firm has a unit of multiple attorneys who specialize in civil rights defense litigation. There are only a handful of Colorado law firms that employ attorneys who specialize in this area of law. Civil Litigation needs access to multiple firms for outside counsel work, especially when a case has multiple defendants, and actual or potential conflict issues are present. Attorneys at SGR, LLC are also very familiar with Civil Litigation’s work having previously defended some of the City’s most difficult civil rights cases including Estate of Emily Rice v. Denver and Estate of Marvin Booker v. Denver, et al.
