

The letters of support and opposition are a compilation of the emails received at denc@denvergov.org.

For the best viewing experience and to view attachments, please save the file to your computer and then open it in Adobe.

Once open in Adobe, you can view all the emails received. Please note, to view the email attachments, click on the attachment link just like you would in an email OR you can click the paper clip icon on the left side of the Adobe window and all attachments will appear.

Please note, several of the items in the compilation do contain attachments of letters of support or opposition.
