Claims Management Resources Subrogation Recovery Services Contract Resolution Request Executive Summary

The City and County of Denver's Risk Management and Workers' Compensation Division completed an RFP for subrogation recovery services, subsequently selecting Claims Management Resources, Inc. (CMR) as our new subrogation provider. Contracted services include identification of auto and property damage with third party liability and investigation of identified claims for subrogation potential. For claims with subrogation opportunity, CMR will obtain repair/replacement costs from City agencies and seek recovery through insurance, direct payment, or restitution. CMR is paid a percentage of actual recovery, based on recovery type: Insurance or direct payment = 19% of total per claim recovery received; Restitution = 6% of total per claim recovery received.

Types of Losses Involved in Subrogation Recovery:

The majority of claims with subrogation recovery potential involve damage to city vehicles, followed by damage to light poles, traffic lights, and signs. Other types of damage that often involves subrogation is damage to park property, city buildings including landscaping, and damage to public art.

Subrogation related to Workers' Compensation claims is done in-house within Risk Management.
