Ty Smith is a peer (Person with a disability), policy maker, and advocate - specializing in the mental health system, quality of life measures, and trauma-informed care. Ty Smith grew up in the mental health system – because of that, he was exposed to many other systems. He has experienced all sorts of traumas and setbacks and was told numerous times that he had no future other than jail. Ty persist and worked hard to change his prescribed destiny and since then he has created and implemented Youth Voice, a cross-disability coalition that focused on creating youth subject matter experts and providing training for effective policy and advocacy activities. Ty has more than 17 years as a state and federal public health policymaker and eight years as a peer provider in the Colorado behavioral health system and has his Bachelor of Science, Administering Nonprofits for Youth. He sits on the Colorado Statewide Independent Living Council (CO SILC) and numerous other councils and committees. Ty Smith is currently employed at Atlantis Community Inc. as the Independent Living Specialist.

Goals and Objectives

I've been working on developing my dream job of opening a Peer Run Respite. I've become an international expert on the subject, worked hard in college to learn how to start and run a successful non-profit, and volunteer in executive level positions. Now I'm looking to work in middle management to learn the final skills I need to be successful. My networks and perspective is what makes me valuable, and I'd like to continue some of my volunteer work, please ask me how this can benefit you.
