- Q & A

Background

Beginning in 2022, Mayor Hancock in partnership with Councilwoman Gilmore directed 1% of Denver's retail special cannabis sales tax revenues to establish an investment fund to support businesses that have traditionally lacked access to capital and other resources for growth.

The Fund, projected to generate between $4M and $5M annually, will focus on strengthening Denver's economic diversity while providing quality job opportunities, ensuring a pipeline of entrepreneurs and small business startups, and creating generational wealth for Denver's business owners who have historically lacked investment opportunities.

Procurement Process

RFQ Process in Detail

- 9 proposals from both local and national organizations
- Evaluation Criteria:
  - Proposed Work Plan, Timelines, and Equitable Investment Approach
  - Marketing, Community Engagement and Support
  - Experience and Qualifications
  - Historical Financials- Financial Sustainability
  - Proposed Budget
  - Minority/Women-owned Business Enterprises (MWBE) Utilization Plan
- The selected partner scored well in all areas with superior scores in their equitable investment approach, community engagement/existing ecosystem relationships, and MWBE utilization plan

Contract Details

Danielle Shoots, Managing Partner

Unique Opportunity. Unique Approach.

- $50M venture capital fund that invests in companies owned and operated by business leaders of color located in Colorado.

Empowering industries of the future.

- Focused on scalable, early to mid-stage businesses and transitioning succession companies in the industries of advanced manufacturing, food processing, and agribusiness, health and beauty, tourism, aerospace, biosciences, and information technology.

Invest in a more diverse and innovative Colorado

- NCTF believes in a more diverse economy, driven by economic prosperity in Denver and Colorado's communities of color. With greater access to capital and essential support services, NCTF is creating upward mobility for entrepreneurs who haven't been given this opportunity historically. NCTF Denver is actively partnering with investors who share this vision and are ready to lead.

Services to be performed:

- Develop an ecosystem of technical assistance and professional service partners qualified to provide supports
- Develop a pipeline of companies that will be supported with capital readiness resources and hands-on technical assistance and/or professional services supports.
- Deliver services in a culturally relevant manner.
- Conduct due diligence with firms to determine investment readiness in a manner to address the systemic inequities faced by firms.
- Directly invest in capital ready businesses. Continuously seek additional funding for both operational and programmatic capital, as well as partnership building across the ecosystem
