5. General description or background of proposed request. Attach executive summary if more space needed:
The City’s nuisance abatement ordinance hasn’t undergone any significant review and revision in more than a decade. Over the years, we have come to understand that some provisions of the ordinance can be inflexible and uncompromising, leaving little room for prosecutorial or judicial discretion and creating perceived inequities in the process. The proposed amendments will build some flexibility into the process, increase the burden of proof at trial, allow for a measure of judicial discretion upon a showing of good cause, dispense with the collection of fees in certain circumstances, and impose mandatory bi-annual reporting to city council.

6. City Attorney assigned to this request (if applicable): Marley Bordovsky
