Current State of Interpretation and Translation Services Citywide

Historically, interpretation and translations services were covered under one contract:

- One contract included over the phone, remote video, in-person interpretation and written translation services
- Agencies unaware of Citywide contract, and utilizing identical contractors for the same services covered under the Citywide contract
- Difficulty tracking spend and requested service types under one contract, Citywide

Future State of Interpretation and Translation Services, Citywide

Budget priorities for 2023 identified by City Council included a focus on improving Community Engagement and Customer Service to support residents navigating city services, resources, and accessibility, including language access.

Interpretation and Translation Services are now unbundled services under separate contracts :

1. Over the Phone and Video Remote Interpretation Services:
 - Service will continue to be accessible by an 1-800 number
 - Ability to track spend for over the phone and video remote translation service
2. In-Person and Written Translation Services:
 - On-site in-person interpretation services
 - Written marketing, materials, social media, graphic documentation for services, i.e., campaigns, social services, and community services
 - Two new contracts recently awarded and currently in contract process

Future State of Interpretation and Translation Services, Citywide

All contracts for interpretation and translation services will include the following commonly interpreted and translated languages in the City, but are not limited to:

Spanish, Chinese (Mandarin and Cantonese), French (incl. Cajun, French spoken in Western and Central Africa), Japanese, Korean, Russian, Vietnamese, Armenian, Cambodian, German, Haitian, Farsi, Thai, Arabic, Burmese, Karen, Somali, Nepali, Amharic, Khmer, Swahili, Dari, Pashtun, Ukrainian and Urdu.

In partnership with Human Rights & Community Partnerships, General Services will conduct outreach sessions to:

- Inform agencies about the unbundling of interpretation and translations services
- Educate agencies on the appropriate usage of the two new Workday spend categories created for interpretation and translation services
 - 82110000 - Written Translation Services
 - 82112000 - Language Oral Interpretation Services
- Guide agencies on “how-to” use interpretation and translation services contracts to develop and comply with the upcoming Executive Order Language Access Plan
