Urban

- Small multi-unit residential and low-intensity mixed-use buildings typically embedded in single-unit and two-unit residential areas.
- Block patterns are generally regular with a mix of alley access.

Low Residential

- Predominately single- and twounit uses on smaller lots.
- Accessory dwelling units and duplexes are appropriate and can be thoughtfully integrated where compatible.
- Building heights are generally up to 2.5 stories in height.

Future Street Types

- North Perry Street: local or undesignated
- West 23rd Avenue: local or undesignated

Evaluation is based on the proposed zone district is consistent with the Future Street Classification, not to assess the traffic impacts of a specific development proposal.

Lot Size Guidance in Low Residential

"It is only appropriate to allow smaller lot sizes than the existing zone district if there is an established pattern in the surrounding blocks of smaller lots with similar uses that would be consistent with the zone district request" (p. 231).

- 9,520 square feet currently
- There is a pattern of smaller lots with similar uses across the alley and across North Perry Street.

- Growth Areas Strategy:
