EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Overview

Colorado AIDS Project (CAP) is a nonprofit organization dedicated to assisting the individuals and families affected by HIV/AIDS in the state of Colorado. With the help of our funding, the CAP provides case management, housing services such as tenant-based rental assistance and short term rent mortgage utility assistance, and other supportive services, as well as administrative costs for the staff who work directly with the HOPWA participants.

Source of funds

HOPWA (Housing Opportunities for People with AIDS), a federal funding source governed by HUD, with special requirements, guidelines, rules, and regulations. These are monitored by our staff and data collected is reported back to HUD.

Term

January 1, 2017 through December 31, 2017

Accomplishments

As of December 31, 2016, Denver Colorado AIDS Project reported the following outcomes for the various programs under the 2016 contract:
