Council member Lewis

June 22, 2026

Council members,

I move to amend CB26-0328 in the following particulars:

1. On page 12, strike lines 20 through 22 and replace with the following:

“(d) Violation of this section is a class 3 offense; except that, if the restrained person has previously been convicted of violating a protection order, or if the protection order is issued pursuant to section 18-1-1001, C.R.S., or the basis for issuing the protection order included an allegation of stalking, or the parties were in an intimate relationship, the violation is a class 2 offense.

(e) Any sentence imposed for a violation of this section must run consecutively and not concurrently with any sentence imposed for a crime involving domestic violence, as defined in section 14-68.”.

2. On page 23, line 31, insert:

“(d) Specifically assess the ordinance language and penalties for violation of a protection order, as defined in 38-44. The working group shall assess and discuss whether the section adequately encourages compliance while also using city resources thoughtfully and avoiding overuse of the criminal legal system.”.

PURPOSE OF THE AMENDMENT

Amends the penalties for violation of a protection order and clarifies that the section must be specifically addressed by the working group.

If the amendment passes it will not require a delay in publication
