5. General description or background of proposed request; include attached executive summary if more space needed:

This ordinance creates additional language in the retail tobacco license section of the DRMC to provide an additional exemption from proximity restrictions for currently operating retail tobacco stores given they can provide evidence they were operating prior to the original deadline of January 1, 2021. Additionally, it allows for the first renewal fees for retail tobacco stores that received a license prior to July 1, 2020 to be waived.

6. City Attorney assigned to this request (if applicable): Reginald Nubine
