Notes & Attachments

LaTonya Lacy

Experienced, enthusiastic, driven professional with a career spanning over two decades specializing in office management, executive assistance, human resources, budget management, government contracts and event planning. Versatile leader and experienced in mayoral transitions, office/space reconfigurations - on time and within budget and administration management.

I believe in positive employer/employee relations following work-life balance philosophies to create a productive and professional atmosphere, while managing and supporting administration goals, increasing employee morale and building team cohesiveness.
