6. General description of proposed ordinance including contract scope of work if applicable:

"Coral Sphere" by Yvonne Domenge, is a carbon steel sculpture 10' diameter to be displayed at The McNichols Civic Center Building. Yvonne concept is a reflection of the macro and micro world. Yvonne refers to the works as marbles thrown from the cosmos to earth, related to the beauty and order of nature. From the temporary exhibition, "Interconnected: The Sculptures of Yvonne Domenge at the Boeing Galleries of Millennium Park through October 2012. Domenge's sphere defies gravity and space, conveying a rhythmic beauty and a sense of a larger universal order.

Yvonne Domenge was born in Mexico City in 1946. She studied plastic arts at the Outremont School in Montreal, Canada, at the Corcoran School of Art, Washington, D.C., and in Mexico City. Working in materials as diverse as wood, stone, clay, marble, cement, steel, porcelain, silver, and resin, Domenge has had more than 40 solo shows and participated in nearly 200 group exhibitions in cities across Mexico, the United States, Canada, Europe, and China, including the Musée du Louvre in Paris. Her sculpture Lily recently won a gold medal at the Olympic Landscape Sculpture Design Contest in Beijing, China, and her work was selected to represent Mexico for the International Sculpture Biennale in Vancouver, Canada.
