GAME PLAN

for a Healthy City

PARKS & RECREATION FEE SETTING PROCESS

Equity

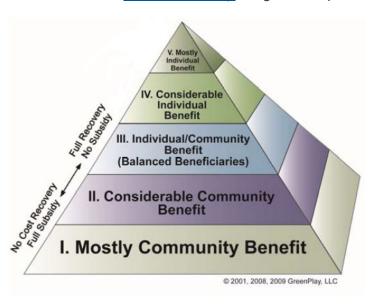

PARKS & RECREATION FEE SETTING METHODOLOGY

Resource Allocations & Priorities Plan (2013):

- Community Benefit Principle
 - High community benefit programs = community funded sources such as General Fund.
 - High individual benefit programs = individual user fees, donations, or partnerships.
- Service Assessment Model
 - Identify comparable services to assess changes in the market, identify opportunities for programming partnerships, and affirm DPR's position as the most affordable, accessible, and equitable service provider.

Game Plan for a Healthy City (2019):

- Playbook for creating parks, gathering places, activities and more that are easily accessible, wellmaintained and equitable in every neighborhood.
- "Achieve cost recovery targets for park and rec facilities and services and adjust as needed."

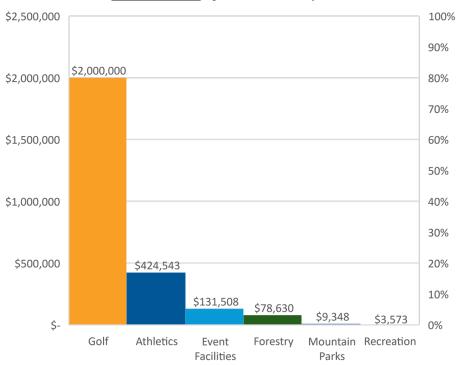

PARKS & RECREATION FEE PROPOSAL THEMES

Department-Wide Themes

- Streamline and simplify fees to enhance cost transparency and support operations.
 - Remove add-on charges and capture in base fees.
 - Remove outdated language including damage deposit and nonresident fees.
 - Remove non-fee language currently outlined in DPR rules and policies.
- Utilize manager authority to approve discount rates and 'non-park-use' charges.

DPR Department-Wide Fee Proposal

Distribution of Revenue Impact

Despite these changes, DPR remains among the most affordable options in the region for these services.

PERMITTING – Park Facility Rentals

DPR has six event facility rentals perfect for a wedding or special celebration including:

Chief Hosa Lodge, Washington Park Boat House, City Park Pavilion,

Central Park Pavilion, Fleming Mansion, Montclair Civic Center

Proposed modifications:

- Modify Chief Hosa Lodge and City Park Pavilion rates.
- Compile all facility rentals under DRMC 39-121(10)c.
- Adjust definition of AM/PM hours.
- Remove kitchen and damage deposit fees.
- Remove holiday, discount, and minimum rental duration language.
- Authorize manager to approve discount rates.

Opened in 1918, the lodge is named after a Southern Arapaho tribal leader who was given the honorary title 'Hosa' by the Ute tribe, which meant 'peaceful and beautiful'.

MOUNTAIN PARKS – Chief Hosa Campground

Chief Hosa campground opened in 1918 as "America's first motor-camping area." The campground spans 58 acres within the 2,400 acres of Denver's Genesee Mountain Park, which is home to a city-owned bison herd and provides a unique opportunity to view these animals in a natural habitat.

Proposed modifications:

- Increase the nightly price for RV campsite rentals.
- Remove add-on fees to encourage park stewardship and ease administration.
- Remove weekly discount rate & the group area rate.
- Increase the max people per site to 6

MOUNTAIN PARKS – Buffalo Bill Museum

Born in 1846, William F. Cody experienced the Old West to its fullest. His skill as a buffalo hunter gained him the nickname "Buffalo Bill." Located in Lookout Mountain Park, the site overlooks the natural beauty of the Great Plains and the Rockies, attracting over 400,000 annual visitors.

Proposed modifications:

- Extend the eligible age for children's admission from 6-15 to 6-17 years old to enhance youth access.
- Increase military rate to the nearest dollar to simplify fee calculations, cash payments, and the need for change.
- Remove group rates and utilize manager's existing authority to authorize discount rates.
