A RESOLUTION

To waive the City and County’s right of first refusal and right of first offer provided by State law pursuant to C.R.S. § 29-4-1202 and C.R.S. §29-4-1203, respectively.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF DENVER:

Section 1. During the 2024 General Session of the General Assembly of the State of Colorado, House Bill 24-1175 was enacted and signed into law by the Governor of the State of Colorado.

Section 2. House Bill 24-1175 established a right of first refusal for local governments related to multifamily residential or mixed-used rental property consisting of not less than five units that is existing affordable housing, excluding mobile home parks, which right of first refusal is codified at C.R.S. § 29-4-1202. House Bill 24-1175 also established a right of first offer for local governments related to multifamily residential or mixed-used rental property consisting of not more than one hundred units and not less than fifteen units and excluding existing affordable housing and a mobile home park as defined in Section 38-12-201.5(6), which right of first offer is codified at C.R.S. § 29-4-1203.

Section 3. Pursuant to C.R.S. § 29-4-1202(g)(l), the governing body of a local government may waive the right of first refusal provided in C.R.S. § 29-4-1202. Pursuant to C.R.S. § 29-4-1203(e)(l), the governing body of a local government may waive the right of first offer provided in C.R.S. § 29-4-1203. Pursuant to C.R.S. § 29-4-1204(5), if a local government has adopted long-term affordability requirements that are greater than those of House Bill 24-1175, the local government’s requirements apply and nothing in House Bill 24-1175 overrides any local affordable housing law.

Section 4. The City Council for the City and County of Denver passed its Preservation of Affordable Housing ordinance, Denver Revised Municipal Code § 27-45 et seq. in 2000 and amended it in 2005 and 2026. The long-term affordability requirements in Denver’s Ordinance are greater than those established in House Bill 24-1175. Pursuant to C.R.S. § 29-4-1204(5), The City and County of Denver’s long-term affordability requirements apply to Denver, and nothing in House Bill 24-1175 overrides Denver’s Preservation of Affordable Housing ordinance.

Section 5. To the extent C.R.S. § 29-4-1204(5) does not completely exempt Denver from all of the requirements of House Bill 24-1175, the City Council for the City and County of Denver hereby

1 waives the right of first refusal provided in C.R.S. § 29-4-1202 and the right of first offer provided in
2 C.R.S. § 29-4-1203.
