

APPENDIX 2-C
Issued for Review Quality Checklist

Appendix 2-C: Construction Document Quality Checklist (90%, IFR, IFC)

The following drawing document definitions are developed from AIA Quality Management standard requirements, and are additional criteria to drawing requirements outlined in the Standards and Criteria, Design Standards Manual.

Construction Documents

- All design and construction requirements are addressed in the drawings
- All plan sheets
- All elevations and sections
- All system diagrams
- All construction types
- All necessary details
- All sections
- All schedules have been completed
- All material types
- All proposed alternates shown clearly and accurately
- The finalization and resolution of previous DD/CD phase design documents
- All items provided by Owner
- Contractors Design and Constructability Quality Checklist
- Scheduled review of documents with governing authorities and agencies
- Final LEED Green Building certification goals and scoring
- Final Technical Specifications
- Statement of required Structural Testing
- IBC Special Inspections list and assigned responsibilities
- Submittal for Permit
- Owner required submittals for approval
- Final Constructability Checklist
- Signed and sealed Structural design calculations
- Signed and sealed MEP design calculations