5. General description or background of proposed request. Attach executive summary if more space needed: (who, what, why)

The Clayton Cares Market is dedicated to improving access to nutritious and culturally responsive food for children 18 years and younger and their families in Denver. Through HFDK funding, the market will provide fresh produce, pantry staples, and culturally relevant food options, ensuring families have access to healthy meals that align with their traditions and preferences. The program also includes nutrition education workshops and access to community resource navigation services through partnerships with established, anti-hunger organizations in Colorado, such as: Hunger Free Colorado, Denver Health WIC, Food Bank of the Rockies and We Don't Waste, to name a few. By addressing food insecurity with dignity and inclusivity, the Clayton Cares Market fosters healthier communities and long-term food resilience.
