NOTICE OF CDPS STORMWATER DISCHARGE PERMIT INACTIVATION

The Water Quality Control Division (the Division) received an Inactivation Notice form requesting the construction stormwater discharge permit coverage be terminated for the permit listed on the front of this card.

The Division has reviewed the information provided on the Inactivation Notice Form and has determined that eligibility requirements for permit termination of the CDPS Stormwater Construction Permit have been met. This postcard is an OFFICIAL NOTICE of TERMINATION and the referenced permit certification was inactivated effective 10/2/2013

Please notify the Division within the next 14 days if this inactivation is in error. The permittee remains responsible for any annual fees covering the period when the certification was in effect. There is no partial billing and/or refund for this certification.

Please call our office at (303) 692-3517 with questions on this action.

Re: Permit Renewal Application
Toyota Elephant Passage (Asian Tropics) Construction Permit
Permit No. COR 03F894

To Whom it May Concern:

Denver Zoo submits the enclosed renewal application for the above referenced site, which expired June 30, 2012. This site has changed names to Toyota Elephant Passage (TEP), from Asian Tropics.

All construction activities on this site were completed in April 2012, and the site was transferred over from Kiewit Building Group to Denver Zoological Foundation. The Department received a request for permit transfer in June 2012.

At this time, Denver Zoological Foundation continues inspections on one porous landscape detention (PLD) area located on the west side of the property. Until vegetation meets or exceeds the required 70% coverage, Denver Zoo will continue to inspect and implement corrective actions to meet the required standards. City and County of Denver Wastewater Department advised that we submit for a renewal of this application, until such time that the last PLD has met the stated requirements.

If you have any questions, please call 720-337-1558.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Hale
