5. Describe the proposed ordinance, including what the proposed ordinance is intended to accomplish, who's involved
   a. Scope of Work
      Per DRMC, a screening committee began accepting applications for the Independent Monitor position in January 2012. The Committee then reviewed and evaluated applications, contacted applicants, set and conducted interviews, and selected final candidates for consideration. Next, the City's Career Service Authority performed due diligence of the final applicants and a community forum was held to introduce the candidates to Denver residents. The Mayor conducted interviews and made his final selection from the three finalists last week. Also per DRMC, City Council must act by ordinance to confirm the appointment of Nicholas Mitchell as the Independent Monitor. The Independent Monitor Screening Committee was composed of the following individuals: Dr. Mary Davis, Chair of the Citizen Oversight Board and President/CEO of McGlothin Davis Inc.; Dr. Joseph Sandoval, Professor of Criminal Justice and Criminology at Metropolitan State University of Denver; Paul Lopez, District 3 Councilman for the City and County of Denver; Judge Claudia Jordan, Denver County Court Judge; and Dr. Nita Mosby-Henry, Director of the Career Service Authority
