An ordinance to authorize Public Works to obtain a Fire Training Simulator financed through a companion capital lease purchase agreement with Santander.

The City and County of Denver is seeking to purchase a Fire Training Simulator from MW Golden Constructors. The proposed agreement is a zero dollar agreement that will allow the City to obtain the fire training simulator and associated equipment and a companion agreement with Santander, who is the financier. The cost of the equipment being financed, including interest costs, is $1,188,241.30.

Because the City's Charter requires Council approval of any agreement in excess of $500,000 and this agreement is a companion to the financing agreement, this ordinance is requested.
