EXECUTIVE SUMMARY (if applicable)

- Fund and Organization Number, including Grant Number if known: See chart below
- The grantor, grant amount, and start/end dates: The grantor is the U.S. Department of Labor; the funds are provided through the Colorado Department of Labor. (See table below for grant amounts and period of performance)
- CFDA Number and Contract Control Number: (See table below)
- Grant objectives (e.g. target population, geographic area served):

WIA Funds: These funds will provide Workforce Investment Act-related activities to increase occupational skills attainment, employment, retention and earnings of participants, on a countywide basis. Target population is adults with low-skills, dislocated workers and youth with barriers to employment. These activities will improve the quality of the workforce, reduce welfare dependency and contribute to the productivity and competitiveness of businesses in Denver and to the regional economy.

Wagner-Peyser Funds: These funds will provide labor exchange services to employer and job seekers. Employers, services include, but are not limited to: recruitment, screening and referring qualified applicants, aptitude testing of prospective employees, provision of labor market information. Job-seeker services include: job-matching and referral to employers, aptitude testing, vocational and career guidance, labor market information and veteran employment and training services.

- Matching dollar amounts and staffing requirements, and the funding source of the match: None
- Evaluation component: WIA Funds have performance standards that are negotiated with the State and tracked through JobLink, the State’s MIS system
- For multiple year projects, list previous accomplishments: These are entitlement funds, allocated through a formula based on population, poverty and unemployment rates.
