BLAKE RENNER

blake.renner@coloradodefenders.us. (303) 620-4999 x 1164(w) (720) 201-8903(c)

WORK EXPERIENCE

2007-Present – Supervising Public Defender – Denver Office of the Colorado State Public Defender.

2001-2007 – Private Legal Practice – Criminal defense practice in multiple jurisdictions.

1995 -2001 – Deputy State Public Defender - Pueblo and Arapahoe Offices of the Colorado State Public Defender.

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Supervising Public Defender District Court 2007-Present

Have actively supervised up to three felony trial divisions consisting of 7-11 attorneys. Responsibilities include training, caseload management, courtroom supervision, performance evaluations and disciplinary actions. Evaluation of potential conflicts and ensuring compliance with State Office and Denver Office policies and procedures. Work with office head and other supervisors to manage office wide issues as they arise and collaborate on the development of office policies and procedures.

Supervising Public Defender Denver Treatment Courts 2007- 2018

Supervised attorneys in treatment courts and acted as public defender representative on the treatment court steering committee. Worked closely with other shareholders to develop and enhance Denver's various treatment courts. I was integral in creation of Denver's RESTART felony DUI Court, and its DIVERT prison diversion drug court. Responsible with other shareholders for making decisions regarding budgets, awarding treatment provider contracts, strategic planning, and seeking grant funding opportunities.

Supreme Court Plain Language Jury Instruction Committee – 2012-2016

Public Defender representative on committee tasked with reviewing Colorado model jury instructions and recommending language changes that removed language that was unnecessarily "legal" and replacing with language more accessible to the general public. Main role was fighting off proposed changes to the reasonable doubt instruction proposed by CDAC representative on the committee.

Denver Competency Diversion program – 2021

Sat on committee that created Denver's competency diversion program.

Federal Court CJA Panel 2001-2007

Represented clients in complex federal criminal litigation.
