Scope of work:

Securus delivers both onsite and remote video visitation, and tablets for individuals in custody at the Downtown Detention Center and the Denver County Jail. Video Visitation offers incarcerated individuals the opportunity to maintain visual and verbal contact with friends and family while housed in Denver Sheriff facilities. This service helps them sustain family and social connections as they navigate the legal system. Tablets offer incarcerated individuals a range of resources including private calls, video visits, movies, and games. These tablets provide a valuable respite from the stresses associated with incarceration. Furthermore, Securus supplies a broad array of resources including legal research materials, library resources, educational content, programmatic tools, and religious materials—all provided at no cost.
