LEGAL MEMBERSHIPS

Asian Pacific American Bar Association of Colorado

American Bar Association: Tort, Trial, & Insurance Practice Section

My name is Ryan Kim, and I am a 28-year-old attorney who works out of Denver County. I moved here from Los Angeles five years ago, and plan to reside in Colorado indefinitely. I am a recent graduate of the University of Denver, Sturm College of Law, and currently work as a litigation attorney at Hall & Evans, LLC. I am currently licensed in Montana and will be licensed in Colorado shortly upon passing the February 2026 bar exam.

I am a firm proponent of mentorship and community service, and my current goals outside of my practice are to secure opportunities in both. I will be starting early next year as a mentor to a local pre-law student through Law School... Yes We Can and will hopefully be accepted as a mentor to an Asian law student through the Asian Pacific American Bar Association of Colorado. If I am chosen for this position, I can ensure a longstanding and dedicated commitment from a young Korean American attorney who is hungry for the opportunity to leverage his perspective and legal background for the betterment of Asian Americans in Denver and Colorado at large.
