5. General description or background of proposed request. Attach executive summary if more space needed:

This agreement authorizes the vendor to provide care management services and staff at the City's new residential community corrections program (MOORE Center). This service model replicates the promising approach at Denver's Project: Elevate program which involves identifying a community-based agency to partner with the City to deliver residential community corrections services. Second Chance Center was selected through a competitive bid process and has a long history of providing reentry services to a justice involved population.

6. City Attorney assigned to this request (if applicable):

Troy Bratton
