6. General description/background of proposed ordinance including contract scope of work if applicable:

This Ordinance is necessary so that CCD may acquire certain property interests necessary to construct the Globeville Landing Outfall Project.

Project description:

This is a stormwater runoff collection and conveyance project referenced as the Globeville Landing Outfall Project within the Montclair watershed basin. It includes building the lower reach /outfall portion of a future larger stormwater runoff collection system that will connect in at a later date. The Globeville Landing Outfall Project generally starts at about 40th St and Blake St. where 2 large stormwater conduits will be tunneled under the UPRR corridor towards the northwest. The conduits will then generally follow that same alignment and travel under 40th St. The conduit then turn northeast and travels under Brighton Boulevard for approximately a block's, and again turn towards the northwest and travel within an current and proposed easement within Pepsi Bottling Group's property. The conduit then generally travels through the Coliseum's Parking lot and just before traveling into Globeville Landing Park, the conduit will then transition into an open channel. The goal of the open channel will be to create an amenity and be an integral feature for the future vision of Globeville Landing Park. The open channel will then outfall into the South Platte River at the Western edge of the Park. Another somewhat smaller conduit will also be built the rest of the way up Brighton to tie into a future CDOT detention pond at the southeast corner of I-70 and Brighton Blvd.
