CAREER

PRESIDENT SINCE 1981
ROCKMOUNT RANCH WEAR MFG. CO. 1626 Wazee St., Denver, CO 80202

Rockmount, a four generation family business, manufactures apparel, hats and accessories, since 1946. Grew up in family business, started in warehouse. Full time role began in advertising and sales. Built international sales and major accounts. Established website, now version 3 – successfully competitive with major e-sites and big boxes from Antarctica to Asia. Sales throughout USA, exports to most developed countries. Although a small company built brand's profile internationally through major exposure in media, films and music scene. Featured in The New York Times, The Economist, National Public Radio, The Washington Post, LA Times, syndicated press world-wide, CBS Evening News, CBS Sunday Morning, CNN.... Worn by Elvis, Eric Clapton, Robert Redford, Bob Dylan, David Bowie, Tom Petty, Robert Plant, Scott Pelley... (See archive at rockmount.com.) Heads design, merchandising, sales, public relations.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- First book: WESTERN SHIRTS: A CLASSIC AMERICAN FASHION, 2004. Wrote most and did all photography of the first history of vintage Western shirts, the people and companies who popularized the fashion. Released at Tattered Cover, reviewed in the New York Times. Presented talks to groups nationwide including museums & stores.
- Second book: ASK PAPA JACK: WISDOM OF THE WORLD'S OLDEST CEO, 2009
Released at Tattered Cover, presented to groups including the US Dept. of the Interior and Eiteljorg Museum. Cover blurbs by Gov. John Hickenlooper and author Kent Haruf.
