

12.2 DECORUM OF MEMBERS.

- (g) ~~The President or the Chair as the case may be shall work closely with Council staff to ensure that members of the audience are not communicating directly with Council or committee members by delivering notes, shouting from the audience or otherwise. Nothing in this rule prohibits city employees from communicating with Council members. All communication with councilmembers from members of the public must go through the Council Secretary.~~