Scope of work:

- A. The contractor will provide rapid rehousing and supportive services for homeless youth ages eighteen (18) through twenty-four (24) earning 30% AMI or below. Services will be provided either in a community-based apartment or at the contractor’s Rocky Mountain Youth Housing Program, located at 1548 Ogden Street, Denver, CO 80218; Rowan Gardens located at 2485 South York Street, Denver, CO 80210; or Starting Transition and Recovery (STAR) located at 1445 Cook Street, Denver, CO 80206.
- B. Eligibility requirements for entry into the program include meeting the minimum age requirement of eighteen (18) or signing a lease prior to turning twenty-five (25) years-old, and meeting the definition of literally homeless, immediately at risk of losing housing, or episodically homeless.
- C. The contractor’s shelter, outreach, drop-in center and education and employment programs, in addition to HOST, the Department of Youth Corrections, word of mouth, the contractor’s social media outlets and the Denver Street Outreach Collaborative or other community partners, will refer 25% of youth clients. The remaining 75% of referrals will be made through the OneHome system.
- D. Two formal waiting lists will be maintained by the contractor for youth clients ready and eligible to enter the supportive housing program. One waitlist will be managed by the contractor and the other will be managed by OneHome. Youth clients are placed on the waitlist managed by the contractor once they are referred to a supportive housing case manager and after they have completed the housing application. The youth clients who have been on the waitlist the longest and have the required documentation assembled for signing a lease will be provided housing when a space becomes available.
- E. Once entered into the program, youth clients will be provided with housing and matched with a case manager. Case managers will be responsible to provide the following services:
 - 1. Supervision of youth clients for: on-site and off-site activities, case management, group facilitation, youth assessments, crisis phone counseling, client data collection, documentation, and file maintenance.
- F. Urban Peak’s Rapid Rehousing program uses a graduated rent system to help youth achieve housing self-sufficiency at their own pace. Youth may receive rental assistance for up to 36 months, as needed.
- G. Funding from this contract will provide case management and wrap-around supportive services for thirty (30) unduplicated households annually and 120 duplicated households throughout the term of this contract.
