

Mayoral Appointments to the Denver Urban Renewal Authority

To approve the Mayoral appointments of the following individuals to the Denver Urban Renewal Authority:

Stacie Loucks, Denver (F)(C) to serve as an individual with expertise in strategic outreach and communications for a term expiring April 3, 2028, and occasioned by the resignation of Teresa Leigh Corral, appointed;

Kendra Black, Denver (F)(C) to serve as an individual with expertise in the legislative process and community engagement for a term expiring April 3, 2028, and occasioned by the resignation of Eric Hiraga, appointed.

Purpose/Scope of the Board: To administer program funds, including tax increment financing, to eliminate slum and blight and for other purposes including redevelopment, rehabilitation, conservation and construction of improvements in accordance with the state and federal regulation.

Member Qualifications: none specified in Code

Selection Process and why theses applicants were chosen – each individual brings a level of expertise in her profession that benefits the mission of the Authority.

Current Makeup of Board:

Angela Bricmont, Englewood (F)(H)

Robert “Bob” Lee, (M)(C)

Anthony Albanese, Denver (M)(C)

Teresa Leigh Corral, Denver (F)(C)

Phillip Caplan, Denver (M)(C)

Angela Cobian, Denver(F)(H)

Ron Tilton, Denver (M)(C),appt

Eric Hiraga, Denver (M)(Asian)

Terri Jackson, Centennial (F)(AA)

Ryan Cobbins, Denver (M)(AA)

Katherine Archuleta, Denver (F)(H)

Kristin Bronson, Denver (F)(C)

Stacie Loucks Denver (F)(C)

Kendra Black, Denver (F)(C)

Additional Information: None.