Hi Anthony, I'm just writing in to express support for the rezoning going on at 992 Knox Court. I live just a couple houses away from this location and would absolutely love to have this project come to fruition. We desperately need more businesses in the neighborhood and this looks like something that could be really promising to bring that as well as additional residents to the area.

The owner has spent quite a bit of time reaching out to the neighborhood and chatting with members including a zoning subcommittee on our RNO and I would love to keep things moving along with him!
