Public service professional specializing in service to homeless and marginalized populations through leading broad collaborative efforts of public, non-profit, and private partners.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

PROGRAM ADMINISTRATOR

Denver's Road Home, City and County of Denver – July 2011 – Present

Monitor and oversee a continuum of program supports to people experiencing homelessness, from Street Outreach engagements through housing and aftercare. Specialized in crafting flexible emergency shelter programming and maturing referral networks for supportive services and housing resources that match to client needs. Lead data-based information and influence messaging on topics relating to homelessness to public audiences, decision-makers, and community leaders. Implement general strategic approaches and particular creative responses when right-fit services are not presenting.

AFFILIATE FACULTY

Metropolitan State University Denver, Dept. of Human Services – August 2013 – December 2014

Teach a specialized Junior-level course called Homelessness and Community Responses that critically engages a variety of challenges and solutions presenting to US American homelessness. Compensation for this position is conferred back to the university toward endowment of a needs-based scholarship.

LEAD STREET OUTREACH CASE MANAGER

Urban Peak, Denver, CO – April 2007 - July 2011

Provided “wrap around” service and case planning/management to youth experiencing homelessness at the street level during evening/night shifts. Assisted staffing of homeless shelter for youth, public relations, and management of the Street Outreach team.

EVENTER/CARNY, TOUR DE FAT

New Belgium Brewing Company, Fort Collins, CO. – April 2006 – October 2006

Joined a travelling circus for a series of experiential marketing events building New Belgium brand awareness and raising funds for bicycle advocacy. Provided creative direction and logistical/mechanical support.

INSTRUCTOR, PUBLIC SPEAKING

Colorado State University, Fort Collins, CO – August 2001—May 2003

Taught several sections of undergraduate core curriculum in Public Speaking during my MA coursework.

INDEPENDENT LIVING COUNSELOR

Home and Community Options, Inc., Winona, MN – October 1997—June 2001

Provided life skills counseling and case support to individuals with cognitive disabilities transitioning to independent-living environments.
