The Housing Choice Voucher Programs are one of HUD's most impactful tools for addressing housing instability.

Benefits:

- Expanding access to safe, affordable housing
- Stabilizing families & reducing homelessness
- Supporting Local Housing Markets
- Promoting economic opportunity & mobility Leveraging federal investment for local impact

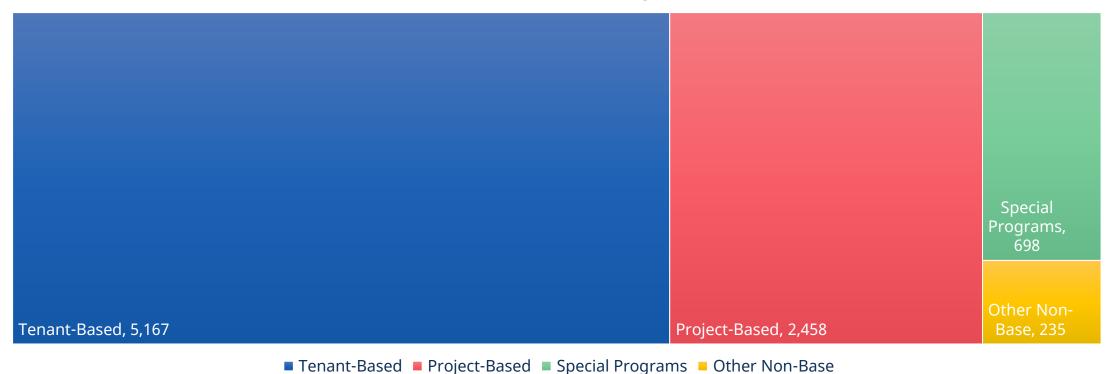

Programmatic Highlights

Programmatic Highlights:	Baseline
Number of Vouchers*	8,588 housing stability opportunities
People Served	Affordable housing via DHA (units + vouchers) supports 19,300+ very low-, low- and moderate-income individuals.
Geographic Choice	Vouchers let households choose location, often enabling moves to neighborhoods with better schools, transit, jobs.
Preventing homelessness/ Housing Instability	With rent burdens, very high in Denver, vouchers stabilize households and prevent eviction or shelter entry.
Budget/Operational Capacity	DHA's 2025 budget includes a dedicated HCV/Section 8 Department

^{*} Include Tenant-Based, Tenant Based Special Programs & Project-Based Vouchers.

Total Vouchers: 8,588*

^{*} Including reservations made through AHAPs. See addenda.

Payment Standards
