(a) Construction upon any property which is, alone or in combination with other properties, the subject of a contractual commitment or covenant that is dated and properly recorded prior to the imposition of a linkage fee on the first structure on the property and is enforceable by the city to construct affordable housing, including by way of example any development or subdivision agreement which includes an affordable housing covenant and to which the city is a party, any city-approved plan to build moderately priced development units (MPDUs) under article IV of this chapter 27, any city-approved plan to build affordable units in place of the linkage fee, any high impact development compliance plan executed and recorded pursuant to article X, division 3 of this Chapter 27 where a payment of fees to support affordable housing development is contained in the high impact development compliance plan, or an affordable housing plan executed to meet incentive requirements under article VI of this Chapter 27. The exception provided by this subsection (a) shall apply only for so long as such contractual commitment or covenant to construct affordable housing remains in effect. Construction upon property that, alone or in combination with other properties, was originally developed under such a contractual commitment or covenant and is substantially proposed for redevelopment shall be subject to payment of linkage fees hereunder unless the redevelopment is governed by a new contractual commitment or covenant to construct affordable housing,

1	or otherwise qualifies for an exception under any other provision of this section.
2 3	Section 2. That subsections (p) and (t) of Section 27-219, D.R.M.C. are amended by deleting the language stricken and adding the language underlined to read as follows:
4	Sec. 27-219. – Definitions.
5 6	The following words and phrases, as used in this article, have the following meanings:
7	(p) IRU or income-restricted unit means a dwelling unit required by this article
8	required to be affordable as set forth in this article section 27-224, a negotiated
9	alternative, or a high impact development compliance plan.
10	(t) Residential development means any project that would create ten (10) or
11	more new dwelling units at one location by (i) the construction or alteration of structures
12	or (ii) the conversion of a use within an existing structure to a residential use containing
13	dwelling units from any other non-residential use. If a project has both residential and
14	non-residential uses, the residential portion of a project shall be considered a residential
15	development if it would create ten (10) or more new dwelling units.
16	Section 3. That subsection (c) of section 27-224, D.R.M.C. is amended by adding the
17	language underlined as follows:
18	Sec. 27-224. – On-site compliance requirements.
19	(c) Enhanced on-site compliance; incentives.
20	(1) Enhanced incentives. To increase the overall supply of housing and through c. of this subsection if the applicant provides IRUs as follows:

encourage applicants to provide on-site IRUs in excess of the base requirements specified in subsection (a), an applicant is eligible for the incentives set forth in a.

Market Area	Applicant Compliance Options	Minimum percent of total dwelling units to be IRUs	Maximum AMI for eligible households
High Market Area	H-1E	12% of total dwelling units	Rental developments: 60% of AMI	Ownership developments: 80% of AMI
	H-2E	18% of total dwelling units	Rental developments: An effective average of 70% of AMI	Ownership developments: An effective average of 90% of AMI

	T-2E	15% of total dwelling units	Rental developments: An effective average of 70% of AMI	Ownership developments: An effective average of 90% of AMI

- a. Access to base incentives. An applicant is eligible for the base incentives for on-site compliance set forth in section 27-224(b)(1).
- b. Height and floor area increase. A residential development shall be entitled to an increase in building height and floor area ratio in accordance with the provisions set forth in articles 8 and 10 of the Denver Zoning Code.
- c. Vehicle parking exemption. A residential development shall be entitled to a vehicle parking exemption in accordance with the provisions set forth in article 10 of the Denver Zoning Code.
- Section 4. That subsection (d) of 27-226, D.R.M.C. is amended by adding the language underlined as follows and recodifying the current subsection (d) to a new subsection (e):

Section 27-226 - Alternative compliance—Negotiated alternatives.

(d) The director may grant access to the enhanced incentives for on-site compliance set forth in section 27-224(c)(1) when the residential development is providing IRUs on-site, the negotiated alternative better supports the goals of the HOST strategic plan, comprehensive plan goals, and any small area plan applicable to the residential

1	development compared to the enhanced on-site compliance requirements of section 27-
2	224(c)(1), and the applicant provides at least one of the following:
3	(1) a greater percentage of IRUs than would otherwise be required for
4	enhanced on-site compliance based on the residential development's market area
5	and compliance option, with the maximum AMI for eligible households detailed in
6	the negotiated alternative; or
7	(2) a maximum AMI for eligible households that is lower than would otherwise
8	be required for enhanced on-site compliance based on the residential
9	development's market area with the percentage of IRUs detailed in the negotiated
10	alternative; or
11	(3) IRUs with a greater number of bedrooms than is otherwise required in
12	section 27-224(f)(2).
13	(e) The provisions of section 27-224(e) and (f) are applicable to any IRUs that
14	are provided on-site of the residential development.
15	Section 5. That subsection (a) of section 27-229, D.R.M.C. is amended by adding the
16	language underlined as follows:
17	Sec. 27-229. – High impact developments.
18	(a) Owners or developers of a high impact development must submit to HOST
19	a high impact development compliance plan that demonstrates how it will satisfy the intent
20	and purposes of division 2 of this article and Chapter 27, Article V, Division 2.
21	(1) The high impact development compliance plan shall demonstrate how the
22	proposed development meets or exceeds the relevant standards set forth in this
23	article; Chapter 27, Article V, Division 2; and the goals of the HOST strategic plan,
24	comprehensive plan goals, and any small area plan applicable to the area of high
25	impact development.

- (2) The owner or developer must provide to HOST documentation detailing outreach to the surrounding community, including, but not limited to, the organizations and individuals engaged, and how the proposed high impact development compliance plan is responsive to the conducted community outreach.
- (3) The high impact development compliance plan may include a combination of one or more of, but not be limited to, the following:
  - a. A plan to provide IRUs within the area of high impact development sufficient to meet or exceed one of the compliance options set forth in section 27-224(c).
  - b. The dedication of land within the area of the high impact development for the provision of affordable housing. In any such case, at a minimum, the land dedicated must be of sufficient size and have zoning entitlement in place to reasonably produce IRUs sufficient to meet the compliance requirements set forth in section 27-224(c).
  - c. A plan to provide IRUs within the area of high impact development at a greater depth of affordability than the compliance requirements set forth in section 27-224(c). In any such case, at a minimum, the total percent of IRUs provided in the high impact area shall not be less than eight (8) percent of total dwelling units and the majority of IRUs must serve households earning fifty (50) percent of area median income or less.
  - d. A plan to provide IRUs within the area of high impact development specifically designed to meet the needs of families and larger households. In any such case, at a minimum, the total percent of IRUs provided in the high impact development area shall not be less than eight (8) percent of total dwelling units and the majority of IRUs must include two (2), three (3), or four (4) bedrooms. The development must also contain family-friendly services and amenities. Amenities may include, but are not limited to, child-care; play area; community garden; and other on-site amenities to serve families.

- (4) The director may grant access to the base incentives for on-site compliance set forth in section 27-224(b)(1) when the project is providing IRUs within the area of high impact development.
- (5) The director may grant access to the enhanced incentives for on-site compliance set forth in section 27-224(c)(1) if the high impact development compliance plan proportionally meets or exceeds the on-site IRU requirements set forth in section 27-224(c). Alternatively, the director may grant access to the enhanced incentives for on-site compliance set forth in section 27-224(c)(1) when the project is providing IRUs within the area of high impact development, the high impact development compliance plan better supports the goals of the HOST strategic plan, comprehensive plan goals, and any small area plan applicable to the residential development compared to the enhanced on-site compliance requirements of section 27-224(c)(1), and the applicant provides at least one of the following:
  - a greater percentage of IRUs than would otherwise be required for enhanced on-site compliance based on the residential development's market area and compliance option, with the maximum AMI for eligible households detailed in the high impact development compliance plan; or
  - b. a maximum AMI for eligible households that is lower than would otherwise be required for enhanced on-site compliance based on the residential development's market area with the percentage of IRUs detailed in the high impact development compliance plan; or
  - c. IRUs with a greater number of bedrooms than is otherwise required in section 27-224(f)(2).
