7. Is there any controversy surrounding this ordinance? (Groups or individuals who may have concerns about it?) Please explain.

The designation is response to a Certificate of Non-Historic Status application filed by the owner. The Landmark Preservation Commission property was found to have potential for designation and a sign to this effect was posted for 21 days on the site. An application was filed by Eugene Elliott. The property owner is opposed to the designation, as are a number of neighborhood organizations, including Platt Park People's Association, Athmar Park Neighborhood Association, the Baker Historic Neighborhood Association, and the West Washington Park Neighborhood Association.
