Adrian Covarrubias
 (He/Him) (Male, Hispanic)

Adrian Covarrubias is a multimedia specialist, youth educator, and events coordinator. He is an experienced videographer, photographer, music producer, sound engineer, DJ, & social media manager. Adrian is the owner and founder of his multimedia company, We C.A.R.E. Media (Colorado Artist Recording & Entertainment). He is also currently the Citywide Arts & PE Events Coordinator for all of Denver Public Schools. Adrian is a first generation, Chicano, educator and business owner native to Colorado. His mission is to provide positive media representation of his community and create opportunities for his community to have access to STEAM, literature, & media. He wishes to serve as a median that gives people of all backgrounds a platform in an industry that has historically had high barriers of entry & a lack of diversity. Adrian wants to go further and serve his community in a new capacity through the Denver Latino Commission. He currently sits on LEAC (Latin Education Advisory Committee), and is heavily involved in community organizing and event planning.

Term: 1/1/2025-12/31/2027

Recommended Re-appointment Candidates

Rachel Garcia (She/Her)
 (Female, Caucasian)

Rachel Garcia continues to be a powerhouse in the Latino arts community. As the executive director of the Mexican Cultural arts Center, she brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise to the commission, especially when planning outreach and community events. Her extensive network has helped with recruitment and she has been a great help during the interview and selection process.

Monica Padilla (She/Her)
 (Female, Hispanic)

Monica Padilla's background in mental health and wellbeing as a Trauma-Informed Practices Specialist/Trainer, Denver Public Schools has helped lead the commission into a more inclusive, inviting and progressive space. Her work with at-risk Latino youth and families has allowed the commission to have meaningful discussion about how we can best support the community and bring awareness to barriers preventing care. Monica has also been involved in recruiting and has been a great support overall.

Karen Jaramillo (She/Her)
(Female, Two or more races)

Karen Jaramillo's work in the Chicano Studies department at MSU Denver has helped the commission stay grounded in the rich history that Denver offers. Her unique perspective and experience, as it pertains to higher education, has helped prepare the commission to outreach and partner with different organizations at Auraria Campus. Karen supports the commission with meeting minutes and has been active in the commission legislative committee.

Raven Porteous (She/Her)
(Female, Hispanic)

Current co-chair of the commission, DPS assistant principal (West HS).
