2011 Biography for Jayne Buck

Jayne Buck has served as Vice President of Tourism for VISIT DENVER, the Convention & Visitors Bureau, since 1999. She is responsible for all leisure marketing efforts for Metro Denver, including international and consumer marketing, implementing an annual $3 million consumer marketing campaign.

In addition, Jayne is responsible for visitor information centers and visitor services, the front line hospitality training (Go the EXTRA Mile). She manages eight full-time staff and 18 part-time staff.

Jayne launched the annual Denver Arts Week in 2007 (now being planned for the fifth year) and served on the Marketing and Planning Committee for Biennial of the Americas in 2010. Jayne manages the Cultural Tourism Committee and implemented two new FREE cultural marketing tools from which all of Metro Denver organizations can benefit:

 Denver 365 online event calendar which generates 2 million page views annually

 DENVER2for1TIX weekly discount program which delivers eblast offers to nearly 9,000 subscribers.

She is active in other cultural, multicultural and neighborhood tourism initiatives, and also works closely with the Denver International Airport, the Colorado Tourism Office and international marketing alliances within the region.

Jayne shares her time in the volunteer arena with the Cherry Creek Arts Festival, sits on the board of the Denver Theater District, and is also a member of the Scientific and Cultural Facilities District's (SCFD) Denver County Cultural Council.

Prior to coming to Denver, Jayne served as Director of Tourism for St Paul CVB in St. Paul, Minnesota and was equally passionate about arts and cultural attractions.
